

Focus/Editorial - March 1976

Bryn Jones

H. Norman Wright in his book "Communication - Key to your Marriage," made the telling statement:

"Marriage is the total commitment of the total person for the total life."

This is the unquestionable desire of God for two persons joined together in matrimony.

Despite the possible pressures, strains, or problems yet to be encountered, they will be one and discover the utter fulfilment of themselves in each other. Marriage is the most beautiful covenant relationship and the most demanding covenant responsibility two persons can enter. We dedicate this issue of 'Restoration' to the further exploration of the Christian marriage and pray it will be of great help to our readers. From the moment our eyes met she filled my thoughts and was instantly woven into the pattern of my dreams. We spoke, met and touched the eternity of each others life, embracing, planning, dreaming, two persons snared by love.

Together we have laughed and cried, our days filled with the art of living, and making our dreams come true, surrounded by the offspring of our love we say, Thank you God We are forever one. In the last issue of Restoration we distributed part one of our special report 'The World Situation 1976'. In this issue is part two of our special report 'The Rot, and Direction of the Church Today 1976'. We believe this two-part report to be important enough to circulate widely and therefore have made extra copies available. You can receive as many copies as you wish of the report (parts one and two) free, provided you send postage to cover costs.

We have had many requests also for our Bible Survey on Finance, and have done a reprint of this so that now you can have as many copies as you wish for your church or Bible study group. Again, would you please help with postage.
