Test yourselves to make sure you are solid in the faith.

Don't drift along taking everything for granted.

Give yourselves regular checkups . . .

Test it out. If you fail the test,

do something about it.

Acknowledgements

Since 1999, we have been developing this Spiritual Health Assessment and Spiritual Health Planner, both personally and in the field. This Assessment and Planner are based on the The Purpose Driven Life, by Rick Warren. Each chapter of the book flows into the assessment.

Many people poured their lives into this project. We are grateful to the small group leaders and members at Saddleback Church and in the Purpose Driven community who have given us feedback throughout the years, along with our Area Leaders and Community Leaders who are applying this tool in the small group community day in and day out.

We want to thank Rick Warren, our Senior Pastor, who has made life simple by helping us learn to balance the five Biblical purposes in our lives. Pastor Rick models what he preaches, which means more to us than anything written in a book.

We would also like to thank Brett Eastman, Buddy Owens, Lance Witt, Erik Rees, Mike Constantz, Scott Benson, and Doug Clarkson who made this a better tool through their giftedness.

And thanks to our faithful wives, Lisa and Cheryl, who lovingly and patiently help us apply our Spiritual Health Plans to our daily lives . . . which is a nice way to say they keep us in line!

2 Corinthians 13:5 (The Message)

In Day 39 of The Purpose Driven Life, Rick Warren introduces the concept of a spiritual health assessment. He says that to maintain our physical health, we need regular check-ups with a doctor who can assess our vital signs—blood pressure, temperature, weight, and so on. For our spiritual health we need to regularly check and balance the five vital signs of a healthy Christian life:

Worship: You were planned for God's pleasure.

Fellowship: You were formed for God's family.

Discipleship: You were created to become like Christ.

Ministry: You were shaped for serving God.

Evangelism: You were made for a mission.

The Spiritual Health Assessment and Spiritual Health Planner measure your health at a particular point in time. It is not a tool to see how you measure up against other people; nor is it a tool to see how close you are to perfection. We all know we'll never be perfect this side of heaven. Rather, this is a tool that will help you evaluate your spiritual health, and give you direction for developing a plan to bring God's five purposes for your life into balance.

How To Use This Booklet

This booklet is divided into the five purposes of Worship, Fellowship, Discipleship, Ministry, and Evangelism. To get the most out of this booklet we suggest you do the following:

1. Take the Spiritual Health Assessment.

If you haven't already taken the Spiritual Health Assessment (on the next page), stop right now and take it. The assessment will give you a snapshot of your spiritual health, and pinpoint areas that may be out of balance. This will help you identify the purposes you would like to work on and those in which you are strong. We also highly recommend that you tear out the Friend Feedback Assessment in the back of this booklet and ask a friend or spouse to fill it out for you. Just as with your physical health, it can often be helpful to get a second opinion.

2. Find the Purpose You Want to Work On.

Find the purpose you would like to work on by transferring your assessment scores to the Spiritual Health Plan on the inside back cover of this booklet. We suggest you work on either the purpose with the lowest score on your Spiritual Health Assessment, or on a purpose the Holy Spirit may be nudging you to consider. When you have selected the purpose, locate the corresponding page in this Spirit Health Planner.

3. Choose a Crawl, Walk, or Run Step to Get Started.

In this booklet you will find a table for each purpose with a beginning step (crawl), an intermediate step (walk), and a more advanced step (run) for each of the questions found in the Spiritual Health Assessment. Pick the step or steps you want to take for the area you have chosen to work on. You will also find a resource page for each purpose with recommended books, small group studies, classes, and practical suggestions that will take you further in your growth.

4. Transfer the Steps to Your Health Plan.

Transfer the steps you have chosen to the Spiritual Health Plan on the inside back cover of this booklet.

5. Find a Spiritual Partner.

Many of us start out with good intentions but lack the discipline to follow through with our plans. Make it a point to pair up with a spiritual partner who can help you follow through on the growth steps you have chosen to take. A Spiritual Partner is an individual, usually of the same gender, who is committed on an ongoing basis to helping you deal with life and all that it offers. This person should be a good friend who encourages you, helps with accountability when needed, and actively supports you as you take spiritual risks and face challenges unique to your life. One of your fellow small group members is likely to be this kind of friend.

The Spiritual Health Planner

Now that you have completed the Spiritual Health Assessment and transferred your scores to the Spiritual Health Plan on the inside back cover of this booklet, you are ready to take the next step toward living a healthy, balanced, purpose driven life.

Choose one purpose from the Spiritual Health Plan that you want to focus on. In the following pages you will find a table for each purpose with a beginning step (crawl), an intermediate step (walk), and a more advanced step (run) for each of the questions found in the Spiritual Health Assessment. Pick the step or steps you want to take for the area you have chosen to work on. You will also find a resource page for each purpose with recommended books, small group studies, classes, and practical suggestions that will take you further in your growth.

While you may need to challenge yourself to step up to the task, you also need to be realistic in your expectations, otherwise you might become discouraged and give up. So consider starting off with a crawl step—a target you can easily hit in the next thirty days. Then you can move on to a walk step—a tangible goal that will stretch you over the next sixty to ninety days. Finally, choose a run step—something that will require a leap of faith, but through the power of the Holy Spirit will bring you to a whole new level of spiritual maturity.

When you have selected the purpose you want to work on and the steps you want to take, we encourage you to share your decisions with a trusted friend who can help you stay the course by praying for you and holding you accountable. Don't try to do this alone. Isolation can lead to procrastination. But a loving friend can encourage you if you're feeling discouraged and help you up if you fall down.

Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work: If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up! Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone? Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Ecclesiastes 4:9–12, NIV

ASSESSMENT QUESTION	CRAWL	WALK	RUN
How I live my life shows that God is my highest priority.	Ask a friend or spouse to help you identify your top priorities. What changes do you need to make?	Spend time reading through the life stories of some of the people in the Old Testament. Journal about the characteristics in their lives that demonstrated that God was a priority. What principles could you implement in your own life?	Make it a daily habit to reflect on your activities for that day. Journal or spend time in prayer over how you saw God in your daily activities. How are your priorities shaped by a recognition of God's presence?
I am dependent on God for every aspect of my life.	Wake up with a prayer of thanks to God every morning.	Read through the Psalms. Note all the times the writer of the Psalms talks about his dependency on God. How do those words describe your own dependence on God?	Fast from food or some object on which you normally depend. Focus on God as you fast, and remind yourself how dependent you are on God for your life. Do this on a regular basis.
There is nothing in my life that I haven't surrendered (kept back) from God.	Take an inventory of your life and note everything you have not surrendered to God. Share your results with a friend. How can you work on these things to surrender them to God?	Set up a plan for giving up one thing you have held back from God. You may need to ask a friend or spouse to hold you accountable to do this.	Regularly fast from the things you have trouble surrendering to God. The "Suggestions" section on the next page lists several helpful tips for fasting.
I regularly meditate on God's Word and invite him into my everyday activities.	Meditate on a verse of Scripture on a daily basis. You may want to take some notes on what you have learned about God.	Set aside time to study God's Word on a daily basis. Pray and ask God for insight into his Word and how it can apply to your daily life.	Memorize Scripture. Choose some scriptures from your daily reading to memorize. Make it a priority to hide God's Word in your heart.
I have a deep desire to spend time in God's presence.	Give God a one minute prayer every day.	Set aside some time to go on a spiritual retreat to be alone with God.	Identify a place you can go to focus on God and worship him. Make it a habit to spend time in this place on a regular basis.
I am the same person in public that I am in private.	Have a friend or spouse complete the Friend Feedback Assessment found on page 23.	Have a friend or spouse complete the Friend Feedback Assessment found on page 23.	Set up a regular appointment with a friend, spouse, or mentor to discuss how well you are living a life that is transparent. Allow this person to speak the truth to you, and to hold you accountable.
I have an overwhelming sense of God's awesomeness even when I do not feel his presence.	Study the names of God using the Psalms. You may want to keep a journal to remind yourself what you have learned about God.	Prepare yourself for a worship time using the method outlined in the "Suggestions" section on the next page. Suggestions

Practicing the Presence of God: Practicing the presence of God involves looking for God in every detail of life. To do this you may want to think of God as everpresent in every situation, and remember you are never alone. Look at everything you do not as something you do by yourself, but something you do together with God. Spend time speaking with Jesus as if he were right there with you. Take some time to think about him every hour of the day.

Fasting: The purpose of a traditional fast is to abstain from food in order to focus clearly on your relationship with God. You can also fast from television, entertainment, reading, or anything that distracts you from God. Those who are diabetic, pregnant, or who suffer from severe physical disorders when fasting from food should fast from other things that are not physically damaging. Remember, the goal is to develop a focus on God. In order to fast you may want to consider the following:

- What is the purpose of this fast?
- Begin with something small like one meal or one time slot.
- During the fast, commit the time you would have spent eating to prayer, bible study, worship, etc. Use it as a time to focus on God.

Journaling: Sometimes it is helpful to journal in order to see God’s work in our lives. You may want to start a journal that allows you to record some of the victories and struggles you are having. Record your thoughts and feelings as you go through a process of self-examination. Make it a point to review your journal annually to see how God has worked in your life over the past year.

Worship: Find a place where you can worship God privately. It may be a spot outdoors, in the privacy of your bedroom, or even in your car while commuting to work with a good worship CD. Wherever it is, make a habit of visiting this place regularly and worshipping God there.

Meditate on God: Take some time to meditate on who God is and to get a sense of his greatness. You may want to use the Psalms as a guide. Read through a Psalm and note what the psalmist says about God’s character and about his experiences with God. Take some time to praise God for who he is and for what he has done in your life.

Worship as a Lifestyle: Make it a point to see every action as a worship sacrifice to God. When you wake, thank him for the day. As you go to work or school, sing praise music or adore him for who he is. Throughout the day, try to commit every word, thought, and action to him as a way of thanking him and worshipping him, realizing every breath is his gift to us. At home, bring God into every activity. Talk with others about the things God has done in your life.

Preparation for Corporate Worship: Spend some time preparing yourself for your church worship service. As you approach the building, take a moment to stop and thank God for your church. Before the service begins, say a prayer of thanks to God. Tell him you are looking forward to meeting him in worship. Pray that God would prepare your heart to worship him. Spend some time praying for the pastor and everyone involved in worship that day. Look around at those entering the church and pray for as many as you can specifically that God would touch their hearts and souls during the service. During worship, try to picture Christ seated on the throne (read Isaiah 6:1–8) and thank him for his sacrifice.

Spiritual Partners: Search out a spiritual partner who will commit to meeting with you regularly and help you grow in your relationship with Jesus. It could be an older person or a peer. Set up a consistent time to meet together. It could be through e-mail conversation or in person. This needs to be a person with whom you can openly share your struggles and ask for prayer, discuss behaviors you need to change and want to be held accountable for, share devotional insights you have learned in your personal study of Scriptures, and talk about general life issues.

On-The-Spot Prayer: Prayer is usually a great way to build community with others. The next time a person shares a need or concern with you, stop right there and ask if it is okay to pray for them. Make this a regular habit, and watch what it does for the level of intimacy you have with the people around you.

Seek Reconciliation: For many of us, there are strains in our relationships that come from false perceptions or hurts we have chosen to harbor instead of heal. Take a look at your own life. Are there any strained relationships? Are you angry with someone else? Are you holding a grudge? Are you mad at God for not coming through for you? Are you always critical of yourself and others? As you reflect on your answers to these questions (there may be other questions you think of), make it a point to seek to be reconciled to people you are separated from because of these issues. You may want to talk with a counselor or your pastor before you seek reconciliation.

How Do You Relate?: What relational problems are unmanageable for you? Are there patterns in your relationships that you repeat over and over again? What bad habits do you bring to your relationships? Many of us experience relational problems due to the ways we relate to others. Make it a point to explore these issues with a counselor, pastor, or spiritual friend

Discipleship

Using the chart below, choose a step you would like to take and transfer it to the Spiritual Health Plan on the inside back cover of this booklet.

ASSESSMENT QUESTION	CRAWL	WALK	RUN
I am quick to confess anything in my character that does not look like Christ.	Evaluate your character.	Have a friend take the Friend Feedback Assessment on page 22 and get feedback on the results.	Fund a spiritual partner and establish a relationship of accountability.
A review of how I use my finances shows that I think more about God and others than I do about myself.	Give something to the church or someone in need.	Give the first 10% of your income to your church on a regular basis.	Give from your abundance above the first 10%.
I allow God's Word to guide my thoughts and change my actions.	Read one Bible verse a day.	Read the Bible straight through like a story or novel. See the "Suggestions" list on the next page for more information on how to do this.	Make a regular habit of studying the Bible in depth. You may want to get some tools to help you or take a class at your church.
I am able to praise God during difficult times and see them as opportunities to grow.	During a crisis thank God for all he has done for you and how he will help you grow through this trial. Share what you are learning with a friend or mentor.	Journal about your circumstances to see how God is working in and through them. Spend some time reminding yourself of his work by re-reading what you have written.	Minister to others through the pain you have experienced by joining ministries at church that specifically focus on meeting the needs of those who are struggling where you have struggled.
I find I am making better choices to do what is right when I am tempted to do wrong.	Examine the areas of your life where you struggle with temptation. What are those areas of struggle and what should you start doing to avoid them?	Develop a plan for handling specific temptation in your life. Find a spiritual partner to help you.	Make confession and repentance a regular part of your time with God. Name the things you have done and commit yourself to making the right choices in the future.
I have found that prayer has changed how I view and interact with the world.	Pray a one sentence prayer from time to time to bring God into your circumstances.	Spend some time praying through structured prayers on a daily basis (see the "ACTS Model" or "The Lord's Prayer" in the "Suggestions" section on the next page).	Make spontaneous prayers a regular part of your day. (See "Flash Prayers" in the "Suggestions" section on the next page).
I am consistent in pursuing spiritual habits that are helping me model my life after Jesus.	Develop the spiritual habit of praying. After waking up, take a moment to offer a prayer to God.	Attend an Adult Education class or a similar discipleship class.	Commit to practicing regular spiritual habits on a daily basis such as quiet time, prayer, etc. Have a spiritual friend help you evaluate which habits you need to implement.

Book Study: Choose a book of the Bible and commit to studying it in depth. Read through the entire book a few times. While doing this, get a basic understanding of how the book is structured, what the author's message is, who he is speaking to, what the book's purpose is, etc. Then start with a section of one chapter and read this through a few times asking the same questions as above. To help you in your study, you may want to pick up a commentary that helps explain things verse by verse.

The ACTS Model: The ACTS model of prayer involves breaking our prayers up into different phases or focuses. The "A" stands for adoration. The first portion of our prayers should focus on adoring God for who he is and giving him honor and glory. The "C" stands for confession. A very basic part of prayer is self-examination and coming clean before God about our sin, confessing it, and then turning from it. The "T" stands for thanksgiving. Thanksgiving involves thanking God for who he is and what he has done. The "S" stands for supplication, which involves bringing our requests before God. This model helps us stay balanced in our prayers and attuned to the will of God.

Fasting: The purpose of a traditional fast is to abstain from food in order to focus clearly on your relationship with God. You can also fast from television, entertainment, reading, or anything that distracts you from God. Those who are diabetic, pregnant, or who suffer from severe physical disorders when fasting from food should fast from other things that are not physically damaging. Remember, the goal is to develop a focus on God. In order to fast you may want to consider the following:

- What is the purpose of this fast?
- Begin with something small like one meal or one time slot.
- During the fast, commit the time you would have spent eating to prayer, Bible study, worship, etc. Use it as a time to focus on God.

Journaling: Sometimes it is helpful to journal in order to see God's work in our lives. You may want to start a journal that allows you to record some of the victories and struggles you are having. Record your thoughts and feelings as you go through a process of self-examination. Make it a point to review your journal annually to see how God has worked in your life over the past year.

The Lord's Prayer: When asked by his disciples to teach them to pray, Jesus gave them what has come to be known as the Lord's Prayer. The Lord's Prayer is a model of prayer that can be broken up into six R's. The first three R's deal with prayers directed toward God. They are: Remember the Lord is near ("Our Father in heaven"—Matthew 6:9), Reflect on who God is ("hallowed be your name"—Matthew 6:9), and Refocus our lives toward his Kingdom and his will ("your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven"—Matthew 6:10). The second three R's deal with prayers for our needs. They are: Request the needs you have for today ("Give us today our daily bread"—Matthew 6:11), Repent of the sins you have committed ("Forgive us our debts as we also have forgiven our debtors"—Matthew 6:12), and Rest in God's deliverance and presence in times of temptation ("And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one"—Matthew 6:13).

Flash Prayers: Frank Laubach talked about "flashing" prayers at anyone you meet. He explained how he would pray silently for those he came into contact with and ask for God's joy and presence in their lives. He would "flash" these prayers at anyone he saw, people on the bus, the street, in a plane, etc. Take some time to experiment with this approach to prayer. At church you may want to flash prayers at those you pass by or see in the sanctuary. In every instance ask for God's joy and presence in the person's life. Then look for the response. Do you notice a difference in them?

The Bible as Story: For many people Scripture can become dry because it is read like an encyclopedia. Take some time to read the Bible like a novel. Start at the beginning and read it straight through. Instead of looking for something to apply that day, look for overall themes and indications of what God is like and how he interacts with people.

Money Management: Take some time to look over how you manage your money. If you don't have a budget you may want to establish one. Spend some time praying over what God wants you to do with the money he has given you. This will then help you budget with God's priorities in mind. If you need help with this it may be a good idea to see a Christian financial counselor.

Suggestions

Join a Ministry: Join an existing ministry at your church that best fits your spiritual gifts, interests, passions, talents, abilities, personality type, and experiences.

Jump in Anywhere: You discover your gifts by getting involved in ministry. If you don't know your gifts and abilities yet, then just find something that sounds interesting and get involved. You'll never know what you're good at until you get started. If it doesn't work out, call it an "experiment" and try something else. "If you wait for perfect conditions, you will never get anything done" Ecclesiastes 11:4 (NLT).

Start a New Ministry: You may have an idea for a ministry that does not currently exist at your church. Spend some time in prayer to determine if this ministry idea is something you would like to pursue. If it is, then contact your pastor or church leader who is in charge of ministries.

Suggestions

Be Ready to Care: Be ready to care for the hungry or needy wherever you go. Carry gift certificates from your local grocery and department stores like Target or Wal-Mart to give on the spot to those who have need, without worrying about cash. Carry the numbers for local shelters and food services with you so you can help the homeless. Buy an extra hamburger or bagel and share it with someone who needs it.

Community Compassion: Look for opportunities to care for the needs of your community. There are many community programs that help share the love of Jesus through meeting the needs of others. Look for ways to take your faith outside the walls of your church.

Deliver Food: Set aside some time to volunteer at your local food bank with your family or small group. Make it a special day or evening out. Allow everyone to participate in the food delivery process. Go out for a meal or dessert afterwards and talk about how it felt to serve others. How was Jesus seen through your actions?

What's Your Style: You may feel pressure when it comes to sharing Christ because you think you have to “sell” someone on Jesus. Sharing Christ can happen in many different ways. Take some time to explore your style. You could read Becoming a Contagious Christian by Lee Strobel and Mark Mittelberg, or attend a class at church. You may be more comfortable speaking directly to people about Jesus; or maybe it is easier for you to let it come up naturally in a conversation. Find your style and begin to share your faith with others.

Short-Term Mission: Choose to go on a short-term mission trip. Through these missions trips you get a better understanding of other people's need for Jesus, and a better understanding of the heart of God. Check out the short-term missions opportunities that are available at your church.

Count Conversations: Often we can put too much pressure on ourselves to “convert” someone or have all the right answers. It is the Holy Spirit who converts, not us. All you have to do is talk about the Gospel (see Matthew 28:19, 20). Instead of counting the number of people you have led to Christ, start counting the number of conversations you have with others about Jesus. You may be shocked to find how easy it is to talk naturally about Jesus when you don't pressure yourself to convert them.

Pray for Your Friends: Make it a point to pray specifically for people you know who don't know Jesus. You may want to write their names on a bookmark in your Bible, or in a prayer journal. Set aside a regular time in your day to pray for them.

Spiritual Health Assessment and Spiritual Health Planner

Friend Feedback Assessment Instructions

You have a rare privilege! You have been given this Friend Feedback Assessment by someone who trusts you. By asking you to fill it out on their behalf, they are telling you that your opinion matters to them. Most likely, you are a close friend, a spiritual partner, or a spouse who knows this person well, and they know you will respond honestly and prayerfully to this assessment.

Why are they taking the Spiritual Health Assessment? To maintain physical health, we need regular check-ups with a doctor who can assess our vital signs—blood pressure, temperature, weight, and so on. For our spiritual health, we need to regularly check and balance the five vital signs of a healthy Christian life:

Worship: You were planned for God’s pleasure.

Fellowship: You were formed for God’s family.

Discipleship: You were created to become like Christ.

Ministry: You were shaped for serving God.

Evangelism: You were made for a mission.

Your friend has already completed a self-assessment of their spiritual health. But just as with our physical health, it can often be helpful to get a second opinion. That’s where you come in. Your role is really quite simple and should only take a few minutes of your time . . . but it could have a life-long impact on your friend. So here’s what we are asking you to do.

Pray. Ask God to sharpen your mind and speak to your heart as you fill out the assessment.

Read each statement carefully, and respond to the best of your ability. If you can’t answer a particular question because you don’t know the person well enough, just give them a “3” for that question. You may want to mark those questions so your friend can identify them know when you return the assessment.

Return the assessment to your friend and offer to answer any questions they might have.

Keep in mind that the Spiritual Health Assessment and Spiritual Health Planner measure our health at a particular point in time. It is not a tool to see how we measure up against other people; nor is it a tool to see how close we are to perfection. We all know we’ll never be perfect this side of heaven. Rather, this is a tool that will help your friend evaluate their spiritual health, and give them direction for developing a plan to bring God’s five purposes for their life into balance.

Spiritual Health Assessment and Spiritual Health Planner

In Day 39 of The Purpose Driven Life, Rick Warren introduces the concept of a spiritual health assessment. He says that to maintain our physical health, we need regular check-ups with a doctor who can assess our vital signs—blood pressure, temperature, weight, and so on. For our spiritual health we need to regularly check and balance the five vital signs of a healthy Christian life:

- Worship: You were planned for God's pleasure.
- Fellowship: You were formed for God's family.
- Discipleship: You were created to become like Christ.
- Ministry: You were shaped for serving God.
- Evangelism: You were made for a mission.

This tool will give you a snapshot of your spiritual health, pinpoint areas that may need attention, and help you develop a plan to bring God's five purposes for your life into balance.

The Spiritual Health Assessment and Spiritual Health Planner includes:

- A self-assessment
- A Friend Feedback assessment to be filled out by a spiritual partner or mentor
- A Spiritual Health Plan form
