

WEEK ONE

EPHESIANS 2:20-22
Jesus is the Cornerstone

SAY
THIS

Jesus matters most.

WEEK ONE

EPHESIANS 2:20-22
Jesus is the Cornerstone

SAY
THIS

Jesus matters most.

DO THIS

MORNING TIME

Write a note that states at least two talents or gifts you see in your child. Remember what you write because it will come up in discussion later this month for drive time.

DO
THIS

MORNING TIME

Write a note that states at least two talents or gifts you see in your child. Remember what you write because it will come up in discussion later this month for drive time.

REMEMBER THIS

"I remain confident of this: I will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living."
Psalm 27:13, NIV

REMEMBER THIS

"I remain confident of this: I will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living."
Psalm 27:13, NIV

LIFE
APP

CONFIDENCE—Living like you believe what God says is true

LIFE
APP

CONFIDENCE—Living like you believe what God says is true

MAKING MOMENTS ON PURPOSE

By Carlos Whittaker

I've heard it said that life is sprinting past us. I used to believe that. Until one day I stopped to look at a roly poly on the ground with my 4-year-old son. He was absolutely mesmerized by this thing. And I was mesmerized by him being mesmerized. I remember almost walking right by him to continue with some important grown up task. "DAD! LOOK! YOU HAVE TO LOOK!" So I got down on my belly, eye-level with that tiny insect. I was suddenly floored. Every single time my son touched that thing; it would roll into the most perfect circle I had ever seen. We laid on our bellies for almost 25 minutes playing with that thing. When I got up, I was all but ready to become president of the World Roly Poly Association. It was that amazing. A ROLY POLY!

It was then that I realized the statement my generation loved to spit out, "Life is sprinting past us." was wrong. We were actually sprinting past life. And, that was the day I decided to stop.

I thought if we began experiencing these moments, on purpose, then we would find ourselves with a much more fulfilling life and a deeper connection as a family. Since that decision, I'm glad to say, I could not have been more right. From every big moment we have experienced AS A FAMILY, to the everyday, small moments, my children will reach adulthood never wondering if they had an experience-filled childhood. And, I believe their experience-filled childhood will set them up to have an epic, adventure-filled adulthood.

The great thing about being a Moment Maker is that it doesn't take large amounts of cash, epic trips around the world, or anything more than intentionality.

Whatever stage of parenting you are at, whatever season you find yourself in, be intentional about enjoying creating special moments with your family this summer. Create them on purpose, and you will soon find yourself living your life as opposed to your life living you.

For more blog posts
and parenting resources, visit:
ParentCue.org

MAKING MOMENTS ON PURPOSE

By Carlos Whittaker

I've heard it said that life is sprinting past us. I used to believe that. Until one day I stopped to look at a roly poly on the ground with my 4-year-old son. He was absolutely mesmerized by this thing. And I was mesmerized by him being mesmerized. I remember almost walking right by him to continue with some important grown up task. "DAD! LOOK! YOU HAVE TO LOOK!" So I got down on my belly, eye-level with that tiny insect. I was suddenly floored. Every single time my son touched that thing; it would roll into the most perfect circle I had ever seen. We laid on our bellies for almost 25 minutes playing with that thing. When I got up, I was all but ready to become president of the World Roly Poly Association. It was that amazing. A ROLY POLY!

It was then that I realized the statement my generation loved to spit out, "Life is sprinting past us." was wrong. We were actually sprinting past life. And, that was the day I decided to stop.

I thought if we began experiencing these moments, on purpose, then we would find ourselves with a much more fulfilling life and a deeper connection

as a family. Since that decision, I'm glad to say, I could not have been more right. From every big moment we have experienced AS A FAMILY, to the everyday, small moments, my children will reach adulthood never wondering if they had an experience-filled childhood. And, I believe their experience-filled childhood will set them up to have an epic, adventure-filled adulthood.

The great thing about being a Moment Maker is that it doesn't take large amounts of cash, epic trips around the world, or anything more than intentionality.

Whatever stage of parenting you are at, whatever season you find yourself in, be intentional about enjoying creating special moments with your family this summer. Create them on purpose, and you will soon find yourself living your life as opposed to your life living you.

For more blog posts
and parenting resources, visit:
ParentCue.org