Find Us Faithful

Mike is a plumber, one of the men who are working on our expansion at the church in Franklin. Mike is 58 years old. He lost his wife three years ago and on the same day his mother died and a year later his two sisters died as well. As Mike started to work at the church, we just connected like we knew each other for years. He told me that he wasn't in very good health, that only 35% of his heart is working. He proceeded to tell me that he didn't think that he would be here much longer. I told him that I would keep him in prayer and I did and still do. A few days went by and he brought up to me again that he didn't know how long he would be alive and asked me if I was still praying for him and I told him that I was. This time the Holy Spirit opened the door for me to witness to him further. The Holy Spirit prompted me to ask him if he knew Jesus as Lord and Savior.

I said, "Mike, do you know Jesus?" "Sure, I know Jesus." "Mike, I just want to make sure you know Jesus as your Lord and Savior before you die. You need to be sure you know Jesus, I care about you and I want to make sure you know Jesus." "I know Jesus, Pastor Dave!" Way down deep inside I had a feeling he didn't know Jesus as Lord and Savior.

The next day I went to check on the men working at the church and Mike came to me and asked if I had time to talk. I told him I did and he took me aside and said, "Pastor Dave, I came really early this morning before any other workers came and I hope you don't mind but I used the altar up front of the church, you call it an altar right?" "Yes, I call it an altar." He said, "I went up there and I knelt down in front of it and talked to Jesus and asked him to save me because of what you said to me about knowing Jesus before I die. Jesus forgave me of my sins this morning, I am ready to go." As he told me this tears were running down his face and mine, this was a God moment. Mike thanked me for taking time to talk to him about Jesus.

All I was doing is being a disciple for Jesus and showing Mike Jesus. Jesus calls us all to be disciples and make Christ like disciples. All I did was show Mike Jesus through my conversation and showed him that I cared like Jesus would. Mike tells me, "Pastor, I'm praying for you, are you still praying for me?" "Yes, Mike, I'm praying for you."

We make this being disciples and making disciples a hard thing to do. All that Jesus is asking us to do is show others His love, grace and mercy. People are hurting and you and I may be the only Jesus they see and need in their lives. Let's be intentional in being Disciples for Jesus. (continued on Page 12)

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 29, 2018 PITTSBURGH DISTRICT CHILDREN'S TALENT

Greetings Pittsburgh District Churches! We have exciting news to share with you about the annual children's talent competition. We will be making several changes this year in an effort to encourage and inspire participation in this event. God has provided our children with unique and special gifts that can be used to honor Him and forward His kingdom. We need our local churches to help our children discover the talents God has gifted them with and encourage them to participate in this activity. As a church body we need to support our children and let them know that we value their contribution in our church families.

Missionaries Are Coming!

June 5-17, 2018

Monty Cyr and family: Discipleship Ministries Coordinator from Guatemala.

Monte & Bethany Cyr (pronounced "Sear") are Global Missionaries for the Church of the Nazarene on the Mesoamerica Region (formerly the Caribbean and Mexico/Central America regions).

Monte serves as the Regional Coordinator for Discipleship Ministries since March 2011. His main responsibilities include training leaders and Pastors, and working with districts and churches to develop relevant and effective discipleship strategies to make Christlike disciples in the nations.

Monte has also served as the Global NYI President from 2005-2009, giving leadership to our youth and youth leaders world-wide. Additionally, he has served as the Africa Region Youth Ministries Coordinator from October 1998 until July 2006, and the Caribbean Region Youth Ministries Coordinator from July 2006 until March 2011. Bethany provides support to Monte's ministry by helping with office work, and she serves on the school board of their daughter Nkele's school.

Monte graduated from Northwest Nazarene University with a B.A. in Religion in 1986. He received his Master of Divinity Degree from Nazarene Theological Seminary in Kansas City, Missouri in 1990. Monte was a full time Youth Pastor from 1990 until their Missionary appointment in 1998.

If interesting in hosting or joining other churches to host either of these great missionaries, please contact Sandy Greenlee (814-756-3630) or email mgreenleesub@yahoo.com.

First churches get the best dates. Consider having them for VBS evenings too.

Ashley and Tracey Hord

Ashley and Tracey, both previous missionaries, met in Botswana, Africa and were married in Tracey's home country of Zimbabwe on April 30, 2005. After moving back to Houston, Texas, where Ashley was born and raised, in July 2006, God blessed them with three beautiful children: Esther is eleven, Joseph is seven, and Hannah is five. While in Houston, they fellowshipped and served at The Crossing Church of the Nazarene.

The Hords have been serving in the country of Lesotho, located in the southern African region, since March 2016. They have been assisting in a newly formed school in the Lesotho district. With their training from Child Evangelism Fellowship, three Good News Clubs have been established to share the gospel of Jesus Christ with children, while teaching nationals how to do the same. Good News Clubs are also taking place on Sundays at the local churches around the Lesotho district for a period of six weeks at a time. Working with local pastors, they have assisted in church development, and helping train pastors for ministry through a satellite Bible School.

NMI Events and Happenings

Praises and update on the Bibles, Christian Literature we have collected. We were just a small part of this but we have planted some seeds through our collecting Bibles. We are still collecting.

Christian Literature for Africa (CLA) and the Education Development United Foundation (EDUF) volunteered to sort, pack, and ship the remaining books to Southern Africa Nazarene University (SANU) in Swaziland and Africa Nazarene University (ANU) in Kenya. The shipment to ANU was received with great jubilation on September 6. Prof. Rod Reed, Deputy Vice Chancellor Academics, said, "This is a tremendous gift to ANU. It will greatly enhance the collection of books that support our School of Religion and Christian Ministry. Thanks to all the partners who made this possible." Dr. Greg Crofford, Dean of the School of Religion and Christian Ministry, pointed out that some of the books will be distributed to other Bible Colleges in East Africa while the rest will remain on the main ANU campus. Rev. Gift Mtukwa, chair of the Religion Department, said, "The library resources we have received have not only doubled our physical book collection, but they have greatly enhanced the quality of our library. I want (to) assure NBC that the books are in good hands and will certainly be used by our students and faculty. Thank you." Andrew Ntabo, student and leader of the Religion Student Association stated, "Wow. I cannot wait to hold and read them. God bless NBC and CLA."

- Mrs. Amy Crofford, Africa Nazarene University

2017 Record Year for CLA: Thanks to your partnership, 2017 was a record year for CLA. Through Gods faithfulness, your giving and prayer, you helped the ministry do the following: · Ship 5 containers to Africa · 98,904 pounds of resources · 3146 boxes of books · 71,808 pieces of literature.

Hiring English Teachers for Malaysia - Inquire!

Dynamic Language Centre is accepting applications for full-time language teachers in their English language center in Penang, Malaysia.

In Sumprecia Yaro's rural village in northeastern Ghana, educating girls is typically frowned upon. Sumprecia's first-year high school fees were paid by a compassion fund the district had set up, and she also received two pigs to raise. The profits that the pigs and their progeny generated allowed her to finish school without having to turn to men who would exploit her.

Through the church's support, Sumprecia became the first educated girl in her family. She says that the Nazarene superintendent encouraged her to keep up with her classes and never think of quitting. He even suggested that through her efforts, other girls could be empowered to believe they could succeed.

"For the first time, I felt like I am capable of doing something good, and could do more," she says.

The Nazarene Girls for Justice Club has helped hundreds of girls gain an education or vocational training and receive emotional and spiritual support.

A Dream of Justice

Sumprecia's feeling that she could do more wasn't just a passing notion. She went on to found the Nazarene Girls for Justice Club as a way to equip and empower other girls. Sumprecia knew her story wasn't unique. She also knew that many girls weren't as fortunate as she was: when they left school, they often didn't get to go back. She says God began to speak to her about forming a club to support other girls the way she had been supported.

"I had a lot of encouragement to dream of living and doing anything that men could do because I am not a lesser human being," Sumprecia says. "I always find ways to share this same dream with other girls and to encourage them."

In 2009, the dream God gave her for the justice club came to fruition. Since then, young women have been coming together to create tangible solutions for the problems they face.

At first, running the club wasn't smooth. In order to garner the respect and support of the men in the community, leadership of the club was given to a man in the beginning. This generated a lot of tension – how would the young women learn to accomplish things themselves if they weren't allowed to lead? Still, they didn't let the awkwardness stop them. Sumprecia, along with 14 other girls who had similar stories, came together to start the first club.

"We freely discussed our issues and found ways to respond with biblical teachings and prayers," Sumprecia says.

After about a year, the church leadership helped the club transition its structure. Now, the club functions independently under the leadership of young women. Nazarene district leadership continues to provide support in the form of mentoring and leadership training opportunities, as well as finances for larger project proposals. The church leaders also engage with local police when legal justice is needed for specific situations in the lives of the girls, such as sexual assault.

The club hasn't just continued to function; it has exploded. The original club with 15 members has grown to more than 750 members, plus others who aren't yet registered officially. The club consists of groups who meet across four zones in 11 different communities. The groups meet on the first Saturday of each month, and the local group leaders also meet together every three months. Once a year, all members are invited to a club-wide gathering at a central location.

Mount Chestnut Nazarene Retreat Center

The Pittsburgh District is privileged to have such a powerful tool for ministry. A tool that is utilized by thousands, who each year, come to seek refuge, strength and healing through ministries that take place here. In a time where many camps are being sold, we have such a treasured gift in Mt. Chestnut Nazarene Retreat Center as it is one of 33 Nazarene Camps in the United States.

Camping ministry is one of the cheapest revivals you can have at your church. Have you ever witnessed a group of young people return from summer camp? Their passion and enthusiasm for Jesus is contagious. If you can nurture and disciple their energy, your church could watch a Holy Spirit fire spread across your congregation. There is value in camping ministries and the facility that is used to host these ministries.

Over the past 3 years which I have served as the Center Administrator at Mt. Chestnut, I have witnessed God's hand at work in many areas at our Center. From lives being touched, to financial blessings and new groups utilizing our facilities, I am certain God still has a plan for Mt. Chestnut. Many of you refer to this place as "Camp", and it is. But our reach extends beyond the 9 weeks of summer camps. We host many retreats in the spring and fall and even have a few events booked in the winter months. Our District Center hosts events such as Walk to Emmaus, Freedom Reigns, church retreats, youth retreats and many scrapbook and quilting retreats. It is exciting to know that people in our community and other denominations see the value in what we have!

It the goal of our staff here at Mt. Chestnut to continue to improve the facilities and services we offer to our District and other guests. We work hard to improve accommodations so they are updated, comfortable and clean. We hope you have experienced pleasant changes each time you return to our grounds. Some of the newest upgrades you will find upon returning:

- A new playground
- Painted and updated MPB lobbies
- A new serving line in the dining hall
- New menu selections from Chef Mark

Although our project list is long, we do our best to prioritize the work and complete what we are able within our availability and resources. You can help! Whether as an individual or church group, we can always use extra hands.

- Removal of old wooden playground
- Till sand volleyball pit
- Stain porches
- Remove old trees
- Painting (interior and exterior)
- Extensive renovations in Dorm 1
- Prayer walks

Please contact the District Office if you have free time and want to lend a hand or to schedule a work group. We are willing to provide free food and housing for our volunteers!

“He told them. The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.” Luke 10:2

“Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” Matthew 28:18-20
