Rev. J Bret Metcalfe
District Superintendent

“The mission of the Church of the Nazarene is to make Christlike disciples in the nations.” That is the mission statement the Church of the Nazarene has adopted because that is what Jesus calls us to do in Matthew 28:18-20. Have you ever stopped and thought about what Jesus commands? Or even stopped and thought about the mission statement? How do you “make” a disciple? For the most part, no one can make another person do anything that person does not want to do. So, what in the world are we saying? In the original Greek, the word “make” is not there as a specific word. It was added to the English to help the readers understand what Jesus was saying. The reality of what Jesus was saying is, “Go and be a disciple so that others will want to be a disciple. At that point you can teach them what you have learned from Me and I will give you everything you need to accomplish what I am asking.” Jesus never expected His followers to make someone do something, He wanted them to live Christ centered lives in everything they did so that other people would want this radical lifestyle. Live Christ and others will want Him. This is a message for all who choose to follow Christ. This message is not predicated on a certain denomination, but on followers of Christ. This is a message for all.

The second part of the mission statement deals with “nations.” While it is easy to think of places outside the United States, the word here means any group of people. This could be where you work, where you shop, your family, your friends, or any other group. The Great Commission was not commanded for someone else, it was commanded of you. Are you “making Christlike disciples in your nation?”

We are here to help you in your pursuit of following the Great Commission. For District Assembly, we want to give you an opportunity to learn how you can be more effective in your context. I know, when some of you hear the words “District Assembly” the first thing that comes to mind is “boring” or “business” or something that may not seem very enticing. This year, we are going to make District Assembly more like a time of worship and learning. Friday night, June 26 at 6:00 PM starts us off with our ordination service. This is a great time of rejoicing and participating in the ordaining of God called leaders.

Work and Witness Thank you!

April 27, 2015

To the Pittsburgh District NMI:

I want to begin this message by expressing my gratitude for the $500 scholarship that was provided for me as a pastor going on his first ever international work and witness trip. I would not have been able to go on this past year's work and witness trip without that scholarship. I appreciate greatly your investment in pastors to go on these trips each year. Thank you.

Pray for Nepal

When a 7.8-magnitude earthquake struck Nepal on April 25, it was a Saturday. In Nepal, that's the day when Christians gather to worship. That meant that most churches were full when the ground began to violently shake beneath their feet.

Prakash, the pastor of the Nazarene church outside Kathmandu, said that because everyone in his family was at the church with him, there were no casualties in his family.

"I was preaching when the earth started to shake," Prakash said. "I told the congregation to stay still and remain where they are, as we were meeting on the third floor. I told them not to go outside because to do that they would have had to go through the lower floors and on the top they were safer."

On May 1, the disaster response team began serving in the Sindhupalchock district, one of the hardest hit areas, about 30 kilometers east of the capital city, Kathmandu. The team is providing aid to a community of about 1,000 people where the United Nations estimates 64 percent of homes were destroyed in the quake.

The Church of the Nazarene has more than 300 churches and church plants and 8,000 members in Nepal. Their focus following the earthquake will be to meet the needs of their neighbors, both through short-term emergency aid and longer-term community development efforts - all in the name of Christ

How to help - Pray for grieving families, pray for vulnerable children and families, pray for those responding to the disaster, and pray for our church leaders and members in Nepal.

Have motorcycle will ride ...

Saturday, August 1, 2015 is the 13th Annual Camp Run - started by a couple of guys wanting to ride together while raising some extra funds for Family Camp. Many riders have come and gone and some even returned. The Lord has greatly blessed us as we have twisted throttles for Him.

You are invited to ride with us. Only a couple of things are required: motorcycle ... rider ... passenger optional. We ask that each rider donate to our Camp Fund. If you are not able to, we understand. It is of greater value to the Kingdom that you are here and riding!

You are encouraged to ask your local church, to support you in this event. We are anticipating the day when we report to Camp Meeting that we have raised $5000.00. This could be that year.

HEY! YOU, PRIME TIMERS! ARE YOU READY TO TRAVEL?

Plans are for two special events. The first will be during Family Camp on July 29 or 30 (choose your day) at the Moraine State Park. Plans are for a pontoon boat ride with a box lunch on Lake Arthur featuring a nature cruise.

The second event is for another Lancaster trip with one bus to Sight & Sound to see "Joseph". This will be a two-day – October 16 and 17 – trip to Kitchen Kettle Village, a family-style restaurant, Sight & Sound, and, on the second day, a tour of Hershey Chocolate. Registration forms and more information will be available in June. Check out the PRIME TIME table during conventions.

Family Camp ~ Join Vacation Bible School's Kingdom Rock at this year's Family Camp. Children 3 through 12 can participate in morning VBS rotations (Music & Memory, Bible Lesson, and Games) and Science experiments under the pavilion. We offer additional activities for children and families in the afternoon such as a family basketball tournament (no cost) and the family edition of the Amazing Race. The evening services highlight our Kid's Evangelists, the Devine Family, who will bring to life God's word. Don't miss out! It's a great time to be with your family and friends.

When you arrive Saturday morning, June 27 at 9:00 AM, you will find tables and chairs set up. We will start the day with worship and Dr. Warrick will be bringing a challenging message about our role as Christ followers in the Church of the Nazarene on the Pittsburgh District and beyond. There will be some reports (very minimal) and then we will have a few select pastors give reports about what God has been doing through them as they have sought to "make Christlike disciples in their nation." After each report, there will be a time of learning from each other in a directed type of learning event. We will eat together and before we all leave, we will have communion together. I am praying that this assembly will be the start of a new direction for the district. One that helps us become more unified and therefore able to meet the needs of the lost and see God's kingdom grow.

Co-laboring with you, J Bret

Susie Shellenberger loves bright colors, the smell of brand new tennis shoes, burnt hot dogs, sock monkeys and laughing until her sides hurt. She's fun, creative and has travelled to every continent in the world - yes, even Antarctica. She's an OKC Thunder basketball fan and has given the invocation at several of their home games.

Susie grew up in Bethany OK and attended Southern Nazarene University where she served as the first elected female student government president and received a B.A. in Communications with minors in education, English and creative writing. She received her Master's Degree in creative writing from the University of Central Oklahoma.

She served as a fulltime youth pastor in Conway AR, Longmont CO, San Antonia TX and Bethany OK.

After staff ministry, she enjoyed teaching speech, English, drama and creative writing in the public school system.

Her public school experience was interrupted with an invitation to join Focus on the Family who hired her to create a magazine for teen girls. Brio was launched in March of 1990, and Susie served as editor for nearly two decades. During that time, she also launched a spin-off magazine for older girls called Brio & Beyond. She also started a book line for teens girls, began overseas mission trips for guys and girls (which still continues today – see the missions section on this Web site) and produced two mother/daughter cruises.

In 2009, due to economic problems, Focus on the Family discontinued their teen products and dismissed the youth staff. Susie, already an ordained elder in the Church of the Nazarene, entered fulltime evangelism while launching a new magazine for teen girls titled SUSIE Mag. She was against naming it after herself, but the marketing team at the new publisher's insisted Susie greon using her name as a bridge of familiarity for Christian teen girls wondering what happened to Brio. Three years later, she changed the title to SISTERHOOD Magazine.

My name is Michael “Big Daddy” Parenti and I grew up attending a church in Pennsylvania every time the doors were open. As a teenager, I felt convicted that I was living a double life. I acted one way in church and another in school. I was just living out my parent's religion. Something needed to change.

As a teenager, tragedy struck our school. Two classmates lost their lives. I remember vividly the thought that they may now be in hell. It terrified me, but even worse I was gripped with guilt that I knew the way to heaven and never shared a word with them. What was I doing? Was I a true follower of Jesus? If so, why did I not say anything to anyone? At that point, I decided that I was going to follow God with all my heart and share the gospel as often as I can.

Not long after that, urban missionaries came to our church. It was then, as a teenager, I felt my call to ministry. It was difficult for me to accept the call because I had other plans. Sometime later, during a revival service, I longed for God to totally take over my will. He met me in that service in a way that changed my life. His presence was so strong and powerful. God sanctified me and gave me His will for my life. I have not looked back since.

In January 2002, God temporarily called me away from my full-time youth ministry position to travel to Philadelphia to assist with an urban after-school program. Little did I know that God also called my future wife from near San Diego CA to come to the same place. Nine months later we were married. She was my first date, my first kiss and my first love!

We are blessed to have 4 children: Victorianna, Michael, Ellasandra and Giancarlo. We home school them, and we all serve God together.

Susie continued as editor until 2014 and then stepped away from the daily tasks to concentrate more on fulltime speaking and writing.

Music Evangelists

Adam's Voice

David Adams: Strengthened with a family legacy of music, David desires to serve the Lord through song became apparent at the early age of 19. His sensitivity to the Holy Spirit is evident as he draws audiences into an authentic worship experience. David has held positions of Youth Pastor and business owner. Scheduling, public relations, producing and being lead representative for the group are a few of his duties. David sings lead and tenor, directs worship, and drives the group from state to state. He is husband to Charlene and daddy to Emma, Johnny, Anna Mae and Luke.

Charlene Adams: She is known for her prolific songwriting and ability to connect with the audience through her genuine stage presence. While her background in music training is strong, Charlene never realized its impact, nor her calling, until her sister, Andrea, died as a result of the Olivet Nazarene University Orpheus Choir van accident. Her 19-year old heart became adapted to resonating with and infusing hope to bruised hearts. The Lord has gifted her with anointed lyrics and a passion to minister. Charlene has a Bachelor's in Education (which she now uses to home school her children), runs Journey of Faith Music Publishing and sings lead, alto or second soprano. Charlene is wife to David and mommy to Emma Beth, John Maeson, Anna Mae and Luke Spencer.
