

Today is Sanctity of Life Sunday

Established in 1984 via presidential proclamation, the third Sunday in January is an opportunity for us as members of the Body of Christ to thank God for his creation. Here’s an excerpt from the proclamation:

“I call upon the citizens of this blessed land to gather on that day in homes and places of worship to give thanks for the gift of life, and to reaffirm our commitment to the dignity of every human being and the sanctity of each human life.” –Ronald Reagan

You can help uphold the sanctity of life by supporting our local pregnancy & family center, Oaks Family Care Center. Baby bottles filled with loose change, bills, and/or checks help them stay open to save babies’ lives and help local families. Pick up a baby bottle today and return it to SWBC by February 4.

Youth for Life Rally

Please join us to protect every human life on Tuesday, January 23 at 12 noon on Public Square in Cleveland.

If any you are interested in attending, please see Pastor Davis. We will meet at SWBC at 10am to ride to Cleveland Baptist Church where Pastor Davis will give a brief message to junior high and high school students before we head downtown for the rally. Bring money for lunch on the way home. You may also meet us downtown on Public Square if you wish to drive yourself.

We have an email list here at SWBC that we utilize to keep our church members updated about important or urgent prayer requests or church announcements. If you would like to be added to the list, turn your email address into the church office, offering plate, or Sarah Davis.
