1. WHERE COMPASSION IS SUPPOSED TO LEAD US

The American Heritage Dictionary defines compassion as “the deep feeling of sharing the suffering of another in the inclination to give aid or support, or to show mercy.”

It comes from the Latin word compati that means “to suffer with.”

If you really put yourself in someone else’s shoes you don’t just care about their present need, you care about what made them needy in the first place.
The reason people sit in judgment of on the poor is because they don’t know them.

“A kinship that stands in awe of what the poor have to carry rather than sits in judgment of how they carry it.”
- Fr. Greg Boyle

“It may be true that the law cannot make a man love me, but it can keep him from lynching me, and I think that’s pretty important.”
- Martin Luther King, Jr.

2. A NEW CALLING TO A NEW MISSION

- We are being called to deep solidarity with those in the margins
- We are being called to raise up the church
- We are being called to mobilize the full gifting of the body
