A Promise to Live By

As we come into the month of June and the beginning of summer this year, we are also reaching the conclusion of our fifty days of Easter rejoicing. Ascension Day is June 2. After appearing to his disciples over forty days, the resurrected Christ returns to the glory of God with the promise that the Spirit will be poured out to teach and empower his followers to continue on the way. Ten days later, on Pentecost Day, June 12, we celebrate that outpouring of the Spirit. And in between this year, we will celebrate the confirmation of three of our young people at St. Andrew: Brittany Reading, Wynonna Blunt, and Payton Metz.

All three celebrations weave together around one profound promise, which is expressed in the verse from John’s Gospel. Jesus has been the presence of God living among us, the creative power of God enfleshed. He has shown us what God’s love looks like and how to love one another as God loves. Now it is not only Jesus who will be the presence of God in the world. His Ascension and the outpouring of the Spirit open the way for his followers to embody the creative power of God’s love for the world.

This is what we give witness to on Confirmation Day. As Payton, Wynonna and Brittany affirm their baptism — and all that it means to live as those who put their trust in the way and truth of Jesus — we bear witness to the Spirit poured out on them at baptism.

Yet too often, knowing our own weaknesses and failures, we lose trust and become discouraged. But Jesus’ promise isn’t about personal stardom. It is a promise to all of us, that together we will be his body in the world. Loving one another (as he loved) is the way. And the truth is, as we keep learning together to trust Jesus’ way, his life comes alive in us. So the world hasn’t seen anything yet! Embodying the Spirit of the risen Christ, we will do even greater things than Jesus. Because then we will be Jesus — multiplied.

IN MEMORIAM
JORGE A. SALAZAR (1981-2011)
This past February 25, Jorge Salazar, a student here at Augsburg Lutheran Seminary where I teach from 2007 to 2009, passed away. Those of you who heard me preach during our Missionary visits in 2008 will remember that my sermon revolved around Jorge. In 2006, Jorge decided to leave a high-paying job to study for the ministry. Several weeks later he was told that he had a degenerative kidney disease that was incurable. He struggled about what to do, but decided to go ahead and attend seminary, where he studied for 3 full years.

During that time, Jorge changed profoundly, but also changed all of us profoundly. He was always asking hard, critical questions and longed to see profound changes in the church. Jorge’s favorite class was the homiletics course I taught; how he loved to preach! Jorge hoped to get a kidney transplant and to live for many more years, but that did not happen. In December 2009, due to his failing health, Jorge returned to his home in Guadalajara and Faith Lutheran Church there, where he had attended since he was 4 years old. He preached when he was able and remained active there. In early February of this year, Jorge had to be hospitalized for a couple of weeks, and though he was able to go home for a while, he knew that he only had a short time left. Yet he was very much in peace with that. He returned to the hospital a few days before he died. He told his mother he was tired and was ready to depart. In his final moments, his mother says, Jorge was praying out loud, but gradually his voice became weaker and finally died out as he passed away. All of us here at the Seminary give thanks to God for the life of Jorge, who touched us deeply. For more on Jorge, see my website.

FROM OUR GREEN TEAM
ONLINE COURSES
This past January, at the request of the Seminary, I was asked to develop the new online course program for the Seminary and serve as its coordinator during its initial stages. This has been a tremendous challenge for me and a great learning experience, since I had never taken or even seen an online course previously. During the last four months, this has occupied a great deal of my time.

We will begin in June, offering two shorter free courses: “Introduction to the Bible” and “Martin Luther and the Reformation.” These free courses will hopefully draw a large number of students and enable people to become acquainted with the courses. For most people this is something totally new, since the area of online courses has not been developed nearly as much in Mexico as in the U.S.

Because the greatest need is for courses at the congregational level, in the initial stage of our program, our focus is on lay formation. We will be recording videos for the classes, and that will be our biggest task during the month of May.

One of our graduating students, Karina García, will be helping me quite a bit with the courses. Karina, in fact, became Lutheran in part due to Jorge Salazar’s influence. Please remember this new program in your prayers!

SAY Hosting Madison-Chicago 200 Relay Race

SAY once again will be hosting the Madison-Chicago 200 Relay Race beginning on Friday, June 10 at 9 pm ending Saturday, June 11 at 10 am, and there will be twice as many runners this year!! We will provide food, beverages, and a place to sleep for hundreds of runners. Donations of finger food-baked goods (especially cookies) and bottled water / Gatorade would be gratefully accepted. Please label items so purchasers know what they are buying and note if they contain nuts (which can cause severe allergies.) Let me know if you can donate so I can plan food purchases. This will be a really big fundraiser for the group attending the Youth Gathering 2012, as well as other events.

All SAY members and families are asked to bake/make at least 3 items to sell and sign up for a shift to work. Other congregational folks are also invited and welcome to join us. Adults are crucial! The following shifts are available:

- Friday, June 10 9:00 pm - 2:00 am  set up and serving food
- Saturday, June 11 1:30 am - 7:00 am  serving food and shuffling sleepers
- Saturday, June 11 6:00 am - 10:00 am  serving food and clean up

The above shifts are somewhat flexible; I can work with your needs. All who helped last year had a lot of fun, so if anyone would like to join us overnight, or just for part of it, you are welcome! Please contact Carol Howard at 262-886-1560 if you have questions or would like to work.

Thrivent Choice Dollars

We are thankful to over 15 members who have accounts with Thrivent Financial for Lutherans who designated their Choice Dollars to St. Andrew. $1586.00 Choice Dollars for 2010 were received and placed in the Memorial and Special Gifts Fund. Those who participated are in the process of designating these dollars to benevolence (such as for HALO), “pride and property” (new carpet for the old Narthex) or for educational programs, (perhaps Vacation Bible School). If you have any questions please contact Marilyn Beck or Helen Eckheart who are the primary contacts for the Thrivent Choice Dollar program at St. Andrew.
Garden Gang to go to Noah’s Ark This Summer!!

Again this summer, a bus trip and ticket to Noah's Ark will be offered to all youth who work 20 hours on the property or in the garden.

The 20 hours need to be documented and verified by an adult.

Projects will be available throughout the summer in addition to work in the garden. The date for the trip to Noah's Ark is August 11th - mark you calendars and get out your work gloves!

You can find all the forms on our website at: standrewracine.com

What you will need to print out:
- Work Schedule form
- Noah’s Ark Permission & Travel Permission form

Summer Gardening Incentive Program for Youth & Families

A place awaits you on the bus to Noah’s Ark! Young people and their families are invited again this summer to invest in the St. Andrew Garden by sharing the work of planting, cultivating, harvesting, serving at the Farmers’ Market, and beautifying the grounds. The reward for everyone who contributes at least 20 hours of work over the summer will be a free trip to the Noah’s Ark Water Park in Wisconsin Dells on Thursday, August 11, 2011.

The shared work and the day of play together were a great experience for those who participated last year. We hope to expand involvement this year by extending the invitation to other Racine Cluster churches. The St. Andrew Garden is a focal point for tending God’s creation, feeding hungry people, and building relationships that strengthen community. We want you to be involved!

Mark Trinklein, our Master Gardener, will outline projects throughout the summer to give direction to the young people and their families who join the project. To register you can contact the church office (639-2072) so that we know how many workers to plan for. We will have forms available in the office and posted on our website (www.standrewracine.com) to help you keep track of your hours. Young people will need to have their hours verified by the signature of their parent or supervising adult.

We look forward to another great growing season – a time of much work and celebration, fun and sharing. The planting has already begun. Now it’s time for you to join.
From our:
Garden Leader
Mark Trinklein

Each spring, the revitalization of our barren soil in the St. Andrew Garden becomes a living, on-going miracle.

That first sprout of green assures us that the garden miracle will continue throughout the growing season. God is good!

To date, we have planted 500 Vidalia onions, 500 cabbages, broccoli, and Swiss Chard.

By the time you read this, the balance of the garden planting will have been completed. We include five varieties of tomatoes, thanks to our member Michael Metz, Armenian Cucumbers, which are burpless, are grown on trellises and provided by Eleanor Wilm. We include the summer and fall squashes, Butternut and Acorn, seedless watermelon, muskmelon, eggplant, pickles, carrots, red beets fro pickling, and parsnips which are a great substitute for potatoes.

Our cutting Garden will provide the Market with Glad, Asters, Snapdragons, Cosmos, and Cocks Comb.

New to the Garden are fingerling potatoes, collard, and ethnic greens and dill.

I have spoken to local churches in our area who are anticipating either starting or revitalizing an existing garden. We all have the same thing in common; we have active church members. That in itself does not mean active Garden workers. Active church members may be within an aging population. These members have sound minds, sound familiar? But sound bodies are not as sound as they used to be — that even sounds more familiar.

In our discussion session following my visit, I discovered that some of their aging members were not able to work in the garden. So they decided to hire workers paid by the hour and do the work they were unable to do. Some came to the garden and brought treats to their hired workers while they worked in the garden, weeded, or picked produce for the market. Wat a great concept. Now they were part of the garden even though they could not be totally involved.

If any members of St. Andrew would choose to follow their example, I would be happy to do the paper work and hire the willing bodies. Let’s call it "WORKERS FOR HIRE."

Interest for the Farmers Market is growing. Vendors have asked to participate for this season. We will begin from June 16 and go through October 13 — On Thursdays from 2 - 6 p.m. We are looking to make our market unique, both with products as well as with experience. We are asking for musicians to play at our market. This could involve one musician or a group of musicians. They could entertain one time or every time.

During the peak growing season, we will sell fresh-cut flowers and visitors in wheelchairs will receive free bouquets of fresh flowers from the garden...
New vendors this year include: fresh and frozen poultry, chicken, duck, turkey, quail, Cornish hen, as well as organic eggs.

TRINITY METHODIST YOUTH GROUP has asked to be a part of our Market. They will sell cookie/bread dry ingredients.

St. Andrew will again feature baked goods and fresh homemade soup.

This was a very successful venture last growing season. Wheelchair guests brought their empty vases each week; and, we filled them with fresh flowers from the garden.

Vacation Bible School will run on Tuesdays from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. in July and the first Tuesday in August.

We need to fill the following list of volunteers for July 5, 12, 19, 26, and August 2.

1 Crafts Helper

Our Mission
We at St. Andrew are committed to welcoming all people with the Gospel, being especially mindful of those groups that have not always felt welcome in the past—recognizing that God’s love is unconditional and God’s grace is freely extended to all persons without regard to the limitations that humans often try to place upon it. We pray that you will experience the grace and freedom of the One who has called us through Christ to worship together, and that you will join us again soon.
