A New Exile? The future of Anglicanism. A new book by Dr Muriel Porter, a leading laywoman in the Australian Church and launched here last Monday evening by the Vicar who has 3 copies left at the special launch price of $15. Speak to the Vicar today if you would like to purchase a copy. The book explores the changing landscape of the Australian Church and the growing influence of north American, socially conservative neo Calvinism on many parishes around the country. Those who value traditional Anglican worship and openness need to read this!

Message from Jacqui

One of the reasons St George's Sunday services run so smoothly and bring such comfort and enjoyment to so many is because the clergy are so ably assisted by members of the congregation in roles such as servers, intercessors, Eucharistic assistants, readers and side persons.

And we thank them for their commitments to their roles.

However, due to factors such as age and health reasons, some of our body of Christ have had to take themselves off rosters. As such we need more people to commit to these roles. Therefore, it would be deeply appreciated if you considered utilising your gifts in one of these ways to serve each other. Training and on-going support would be given. Please contact Jacqui if you have any queries.
