HEARING AID LOOP Please adjust your T Switch for hearing.

VISITORS are most welcome at St George's. Please introduce yourself to the clergy and collect a special "Welcome" leaflet at the entry bench inside the church. Gluten free wafers are available; please advise the clergy or a welcomer before the service.

CAR PARKING for worship services. It would be appreciated if you leave the car spaces closest to the Church for the less agile worshippers. It helps older parishioners if you park behind the Church when coming to worship, unless you need to be closer.

The anthem for this Sunday at 10am is by Christopher Tye (16th century) and the words are as follows:

Give almes of thy goods, and turn never thy face from any poor man, and then the face of the Lord shall not be turned away from thee.

On Sunday 15th November,
Men In Suits, who meet in St George's Hall each week, will be singing at the 10am service

NOTICES

ORGAN RECITAL THIS AFTERNOON.

At 4pm, Elizabeth-Anne Nixon is giving a recital at All Saints, East St Kilda (cnr of Chapel St and Dandenong Rd) preceding their Evensong service at 5pm. The program will include a reading of Gwen Harwood's 4 verse poem "Tetragrammaton" interspersed with reflections on the poem in organ music. Organ works by Bach, Brahms, Pärt, Clark and Messiaen. For those who might be interested, the program is available at the entrance of St George's this morning.

CAN YOU HELP?

We are appealing for help from parishioners in joining our team preparing morning tea and cleaning up afterwards. Over the past two to three months our numbers have almost halved, placing more pressure on our remaining members who have almost all been members for many years, and they would appreciate the help of quite a few volunteers. At the moment, most are on duty on a five to six week roster, but this is no longer possible due to being so far down in numbers. If we are unable to attract new volunteers in the very near future, it is quite possible that morning tea will become a thing of the past. ANY NEW MEMBERS would be welcome with open arms. Please contact Wendy if you feel that you can assist.
