Insomnia: What Keeps You Awake At Night?
“Loneliness & Depression”

Psalm 25:16-17 Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted. Relieve the troubles of my heart, and bring me out of my distress.

Genesis 2:18-25 Then the Lord God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner.” So out of the ground the Lord God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner.

Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh. And the man and his wife were both naked, and were not ashamed.

Ecclesiastes 4:8-12 Again, I saw vanity under the sun: the case of solitary individuals, without sons or brothers; yet there is no end to all their toil, and their eyes are never satisfied with riches. “For whom am I toiling,” they ask, “and depriving myself of pleasure?” This also is vanity and an unhapp business. Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. For if they fall, one will lift up the other; but woe to one who is alone and falls and does not have another to help. Again, if two lie together, they keep warm; but how can one keep warm alone? And though one might prevail against another, two will withstand one. A threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Eleanor Rigby (the Beatles)

Ah, look at all the lonely people. Ah, look at all the lonely people.
Eleanor Rigby picks up the rice in the church where a wedding has been. Lives in a dream. Waits at the window, wearing the face she keeps in a jar by the door.

Who is it for?
All the lonely people, Where do they all come from?
All the lonely people, Where do they all belong?

Father McKenzie writing the words of a sermon that no one will hear. No one comes near.

Look at him working, darning his socks in the night when there’s nobody there.

What does he care?
All the lonely people, Where do they all come from?
All the lonely people, Where do they all belong?

Father McKenzie wiping the dirt from his hands as he walks from the grave.

No one was saved
All the lonely people, Where do they all come from?
All the lonely people, Where do they all belong?

Food for thought:
In your opinion, what is the cure for loneliness?
Who needs you to notice them? What can you do to help alleviate the epidemic of loneliness?
Thank you for coming today! If you enjoyed worship, tell a friend, and join us again! There are no visitors at Still Waters on Saturday evenings or Sunday mornings. Once you come through our door, you are one of us. You are part of the worshipping body—the body of Christ. You join with us in celebration through the word, sacrament, and fellowship.

Welcome Guests

For God’s Children…

We welcome the little ones as gifts from God. They can stay with you in worship, or be taken to the nursery at anytime, if you prefer. The nursery is for tots up to age 3, located in the children’s wing.

Tidepool (Sunday School) is offered at all Saturday & Sunday services for children age 3 through grade 4. Grades 5 & 6 will have a Small Group experience at the 9:00 am service. On Saturdays, children stay in worship until after Children’s Time, then go back to Tidepool. On Sundays, children should be taken back to Sunday School immediately upon arriving. Towards the end of service the teachers will bring the children in to worship for a message and then they will be dismissed to their parents.

Children’s Bulletin

Please take a “Children’s Bulletin” for your child to work on during the service. They can be found in the baskets by the sanctuary doors. Yellow = Ages 3-6  Blue= Ages 7-12

Communion is offered on the first weekend of the every month. You need not be a member of Still Waters to take Communion, simply acknowledge that you are a child of God and you are welcome at the Lord’s Table.
The Importance of Sleep on the Body, Mind and Soul

During this season of Lent Still Waters is looking at one of the crucial pillars of health that effect our “whole self”—body, mind and spirit. We are looking at sleep. The National Sleep Awareness Week (March 5-11) falls in the midst of our series and invites us all to examine those things that keep us awake that we can actually change in order to have better sleep. Why is sleep so important? Consider the following from the Center for Disease Control:

While we often consider sleep to be a “passive” activity, sufficient sleep is increasingly being recognized as an essential aspect of health promotion and chronic disease prevention in the public health community. Insufficient sleep is associated with a number of chronic diseases and conditions—such as diabetes, cardiovascular disease, obesity, and depression—which threaten our nation’s health. Notably, insufficient sleep is associated with the onset of these diseases and also poses important implications for their management and outcome. Moreover, insufficient sleep is responsible for motor vehicle and machinery-related crashes, causing substantial injury and disability each year. In short, drowsy driving can be as dangerous—and preventable—as driving while intoxicated... new methods for assessing and treating sleep disorders bring hope to the millions suffering from insufficient sleep. Fundamental to the success of all of these efforts is the recognition that sufficient sleep is not a luxury—it is a necessity—and should be thought of as a “vital sign” of good health.

In worship each week we will explore the wounds of the soul that keep us from the sleep God intends for us so that our bodies, minds and souls may renew, refresh, and recreate themselves.

Pastor Matt

An Invitation to Consider a Conversation

Starting Tuesday, March 6th Still Waters will offer a class called Consider the Conversation...A documentary on a taboo subject. The film project was done with the aim to provide a wholistic perspective on what it means to die in 21st century America. What was learned was that most people find it extremely difficult to communicate about and prepare for the end of life.

The goals for Consider the Conversation are simple, but far from easy. First, there is the hope to change a commonly held American attitude that views end-of-life as a failed medical event to one that sees it as a normal process rich in opportunity for human development. Second, there is hope to inspire dialogue between patient and doctor, husband and wife, parent and child, minister and parishioner. And third, there is hope to change behavior by encouraging medical professionals, healthcare organizations, and clergy to take the lead in counseling others.

The documentary does not provide any particular answer – as our American culture is highly diverse. Instead, it provides the questions all of us need to contemplate and answer for ourselves. The film aligns beautifully with the concept of advance care planning, which is all about talking with patients about their end-of-life wishes, documenting them and taking action to ensure they’re honored.

The Minister of Spiritual Development in partnership with the Parish Nurse invite you to learn how to initiate dialogue while being sensitive to unique needs and perspectives. Our faith community wants to do our part in helping you consider the conversation and offer the opportunity to document your end-of-life wishes.
