Dear Pastor Keschull,

On behalf of those who cannot thank you themselves, I thank you and all the Parishioners at St. John American Lutheran for your gift of a double unit home for the Salgado Family in Morazan, Honduras. By you hearing the message of the poor from Pastor Chuck Robertson, you have provided shelter and hope for a family in Honduras.

Please know that your gift has helped a destitute family who was unable to help themselves. Your gift not only enable us to further our work for those less fortunate, but it also gives the poor dignity, and hope for a better future. By you providing this home, the poorest of the poor feel, on a daily basis, the love of Christ, and know that they have not been forgotten. I have provided a picture of the Salgado Family and their new home.

Thank you again for responding to the cry of those who cannot help themselves. I remain

In His Service,

Joan C. Vidal
