

All Saints' Day 2017

During the Sunday services on November 5th, we will remember in prayer the names of those who have been buried from St. John on the Mountain during the past year.
This is referred to as the necrology.

In addition to reading the necrology, we would like to include in print the names of those have gone before whose lives have especially touched or influenced you in your journey of faith.
If you have those that you would like remembered, please include their names below.

(Please Print)
