If you know any woman currently undergoing chemotherapy, please pass the word to her that there is a cleaning service that provides FREE housecleaning – once per month for 4 months while she is in treatment. All she has to do is sign up and have her doctor fax a note confirming the treatment. Cleaning for a Reason will have a participating maid service in her zip code area arrange for the service. This organization serves the entire USA and currently has 547 partners to help these women. It’s our job to pass the word and let them know that there are people out there that care. Be a blessing to someone and pass this information along.

You may not know someone going through chemo, but someone on your e-mail list might. Please forward!

Have a Teapot? ECW would like to borrow some for the MAD HATTER TEA on Saturday, May 7th. Please mark with your name and bring to Allen Hall Friday, May 6th or the morning of the 7th. If you need someone to pick up your pot(s), please call JoAnn Bogolin at 724.347.1197. Thank you!

Library News

We have more new books in St. John’s Library. David and Geraldine Bricker gave a number of their books to St. John’s. Those being added to our permanent collection include: The Great House of God by Max Lucado is about making God your dwelling place. Finding God on the A Train by Rick Hamlin is the story of his journey to find faith. Believing God by Beth Moore is her story about trusting God and whether the results of our works show that our belief system is working. The Purpose Driven Life by Rick Warren is a step by step process that starts with God to determine for ourselves why we are here. Irrepressible Hope is a collection of devotions to help one find hope in any situation. Sacred Chow by Adell Harvey and Mari Gonzalez is a fun collection of everything needed for church gatherings. A theme, decorations, menu, program and devotions are included for many different occasions. Thank you to the Brickers for these additions to our library. If anyone has any questions or suggestions for the library, please let me know. 724.347.1197
