FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Four years after she became a Catholic, the Norwegian writer Sigrid Undset won the Nobel Prize for Literature, especially for her novels set in the middle ages, her trilogy Kristin Lavransdatter and her four-volume work The Master of Hestviken. When her prize was announced and reporters showed up at her home, she called out to them: "I have not time to receive you. I am busy studying scholastic philosophy."

This Monday is the feast day of St. Thomas Aquinas (c. 1225-1274), by far the greatest of the scholastics, who is generally regarded as the most influential theologian our Church has produced. Greatly honored in his own time, he has continued to have an impact down to ours and has been rediscovered with special force at different times in Catholic history.

The great American author Flannery O'Connor was a keen reader of Thomas's foremost work, the Summa Theologica, from her young days. She once recalled, mimicking Thomas's style, that I read it for about twenty minutes every night before I go to bed. If my mother were to come in during this process and say, "Turn off that light. It's late," I with lifted finger and broad bland beatific expression, would reply, "On the contrary, I answer that the light, being eternal and limitless, cannot be turned off. Shut your eyes," or some such thing.

The late novelist Walker Percy, another convert to Catholicism, was also much influenced by St. Thomas. Percy was in his medical residency training at New York's Bellevue Hospital when he contracted tuberculosis. He then spent an extended time at a sanatorium in the Adirondacks, where his agnosticism was challenged by conversations he had with a fellow patient, a Jersey City man named Arthur Fortugno, a well-informed defender of the Catholic religion. Seeking to refute him, Percy began reading one of the works Fortugno cited, St. Thomas's Summa, and wound up being much impressed with it. In Percy's masterful—and hilarious—book Lost in the Cosmos, Aquinas is one of a group of leading figures of Western civilization who march into a live TV talk show (modeled on the one formerly hosted by Phil Donohue) to announce that, having had enough of human misdeeds, God would shortly be ending the world.

In appearance, St. Thomas was massive; in demeanor, a very quiet man. But what was he like in his central reality? Chiefly he was a person of charity. In his praised biography of Aquinas, G. K. Chesterton noted this was so from his childhood:

He had from the first that full and final test of truly orthodox Catholicity; the impetuous, impatient, intolerant passion for the poor; and even that readiness to be rather a nuisance to the rich, out of a hunger to feed the hungry

And Thomas had another beautiful childlike quality. Chesterton unforgettably described his last hour, after he became ill while journeying to advise the Church's Council of Lyons at the Pope's request:

But there must have been a moment, when men knew that the thunderous mill of thought had stopped suddenly; and that, after the shock of stillness that wheel would shake the world no more; that there was nothing now within that hollow house but a great hill of clay; and the confessor, who had been with him in the inner chamber, ran forth as if in fear, and whispered that his confession had been that of a child of five.

Msgr. David Hubba

BISHOP JOHN M. SMITH

June 23, 1935—January 22, 2019

It is with deep sadness that we announce the death of Bishop John Mortimer Smith, ninth bishop of Trenton and a key member of the Team Ministry that led Saint Joseph Church starting in 1973.

Fr. Smith was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Newark on May 27, 1961. A graduate of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., he obtained a doctorate in Canon law in 1966. While serving in the Archdiocese of Newark, he held several positions, among them Assistant Chancellor, Tribunal official, parish priest, Director of the Cursillo Movement and Dean of Bergen County. In 1971, he was named a Monsignor by then-Pope St. Paul VI.

In 1973, Fr. Smith (he preferred that title to Monsignor) came to Saint Joseph Parish in Oradell/New Milford, along with Fr. Lewis Papera and Fr. Ronald Nicolosi, as one of the first members of an experimental "Team Ministry" in which three priests, rather than a single pastor, would share equal responsibility for the parish. In 1982, Msgr. Smith was sent to the North American College in Rome.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption in Trenton on Saturday, January 26. Bishop Smith is survived by two brothers and many people from both dioceses who remember him with great fondness. Please watch this bulletin for some special remembrances of our own Fr. "Mort" Smith.

PROTECT VIABLE BABIES POSTCARD CAMPAIGN —THIS WEEKEND

Many people don't realize that second and third trimester abortions are legal in New Jersey and routinely being carried out. The NJ Conference of Catholic Bishops has approved a postcard campaign designed to ask our NJ State Senators and Assembly Members to support legislation that would ban abortions after 20-weeks (5-months). The United States is one of only 7 countries in the world including China, North Korea and Vietnam that allow elective abortion past 20-weeks. Please consider stopping by the table (at either exit) to sign a postcard.

POSITION AVAILABLE

Several Sources Shelters, which provides shelter for mothers and their babies and help for needy children, is looking for a Chief Operating Officer. The COO reports directly to the President and is responsible for managing all the day-to-day activities of Several Sources Shelters. In partnership with the President, the COO will be responsible for overseeing the management and financial growth of the Several Sources Shelters' revenue (approx. $2.5 MM). This role requires a strong, collaborative leader who is outcome driven. For a list of responsibilities and qualifications needed, stop by the parish office. To apply, FAX resume to 201-818-9031. No phone calls please.

ASCPG RAFFLE

NEXT WEEKEND—FEB. 2-3

A representative from ASCPG (American Special Children's Pilgrimage Group), a non-profit organization that sponsors an annual Easter Week pilgrimage to Lourdes for children and young adults with special physical needs, will speak at all Masses NEXT WEEKEND (February 3-4) and will be selling raffle tickets at the doors of the church after all Masses to help sponsor their work. We hope you will support this worthy cause.

SEPARATED/DIVORCED HEALING MINISTRY

NEXT MEETING—JANUARY 21

The Separated/Divorced Healing Ministry will meet on February 4, February 11, February 25, March 11 and March 25. There will be a special evening of reflection on April 8. We meet at 7:30 pm in the Jackson Room in the lower church (first room on your left as you come down the stairs from the Harrison St. entrance). The meetings are designed to help a person grow closer to Jesus Christ and to help those who participate to give support to one another. All sharing is confidential. Those who wish to also attend the Miraculous Medal Novena on those evenings should arrive at 7:00 pm.

FAMILY SHELTER MINISTRY —WEEK OF FEBRUARY 17

St. Peter the Apostle Church, with their support congregations—our own Saint Joseph, Temple Avodat Shalom and the First Congregational Church of River Edge—will be hosting families in the Family Promise of Bergen County program during the week of February 17, 2019

Together we will provide a home filled with love, delicious meals, lots of activities and support. A donation list of items that will be needed is now on St. Peter's website. If you would like to make a donation, please visit www.saint-peter.org. Your donations may be dropped off at the main entrance to St. Peter's Church, 445 Fifth Avenue, River Edge between 10:00am-12n on Saturday, February 16 and Sunday, February 17.

If you would prefer, a monetary donation or gift card to local supermarkets would be most welcome. Please make the check payable to St. Joseph Church and memo it Family Promise Shelter Ministry. Please mail or drop off at the Saint Joseph parish office/ rectory at 105 Harrison St., New Milford, NJ 07646.

WHY "CORNERSTONE"?

FIND NEW ENERGY AND SPIRITUAL RENEWAL

"Four years ago, the loss of my Aunt Joan who had been like a mother to me after my own mother's death, left a big void in my life. I decided to do something for myself and I signed up for Cornerstone. I will tell you that it was one of the best decisions I have ever made. Cornerstone brought me a new energy and spiritual renewal at a time when I really needed it. The Lord really does know what we need, we just have to be open to Him!"

"Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared... ."

Nehemiah 8:10

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need without expecting anything in return.

BLESSING OF THROATS

—FEBRUARY 3

In honor of the Feast of St. Blaise which takes place NEXT SUNDAY, February 3, there will be individual blessing of throats after all Masses if you wish to receive a blessing.

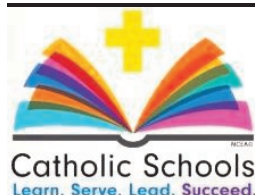

WHO WAS ST. BLAISE?

Blaise was a bishop in Sebastea, Armenia, in the early part of the fourth century. He was martyred in AD 316. Legend tells us that a woman presented her son to Bishop Blaise for healing. He had a fish bone stuck in his throat. Upon Blaise's blessing, the boy coughed up the fish bone.

Each year we remember the faith of this saint and pray for blessings upon those who suffer from throat ailments.
