STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the scriptures?"

LUKE 24:32

How often do we take the time to discern what Jesus wants from us? Are our prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for us? If so, that's a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take time in silence to listen to what Jesus is asking of you.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The seventeenth-century poet George Herbert, who was also the pastor of a Church of England parish in the village of Bermerton, took great joy in music and used to go to nearby Salisbury to play it with friends. On his way there one day, his biographer Izaak Walton (who is best known for his book on fishing, The Compleat Angler) described how Herbert

... saw a poor man with a poorer horse that was fallen under his load; they were both in distress, and needed present help, which Mr. Herbert perceiving, put off his canonical coat, and helped the poor man to unload, and after to load his horse. The poor man blessed him for it, and he blessed the poor man; and so was like the Good Samaritan, that he gave him money to refresh both himself and his horse, and told him, that if he loved himself, he would be merciful to his beast. Thus he left the poor man, and at his coming to his musical friends at Salisbury, they began to wonder that Mr. George Herbert, who used to be so trim and clean, came into that company so soiled and discomposed; but he told them the occasion; and when one of the company told him he had disparaged himself by so dirty an employment, his answer was, that the thought of what he had done would prove music to him at midnight, and that the omission of it would have upbraided and made discourse in his conscience, whensoever he would pass by that place. "For if I be bound to pray for all that be in distress, I am sure that I am bound, so far as it is in my power, to practice what I pray for. And though I do not wish for the like occasion every day, yet let me tell you, I would not willingly pass one day of my life without comforting a sad soul, or showing mercy; and I praise God for the occasion. And now let's tune our instruments."

Herbert wrote some of the most exquisite poetry in our language, but it wasn't published until after his death. Herbert left a small book of it for Walton to offer to the publisher Nicholas Ferrar in case "it may turn to the advantage of any dejected poor soul," a hope that has been bountifully fulfilled since then.

One of Herbert's poems has made its way into the Liturgy of the Hours (also known as the Divine Office), the daily prayers priests and religious are duty-bound to say for the benefit of all the Church. Most of these prayers are assigned to set times of day (Morning Prayer, Midday Prayer, Evening Prayer and Night Prayer), but the Office of Readings can be said any time. Like the other "hours," it has Psalms or other biblical songs (or "Canticles") and scriptural readings. And with these, there are readings from non-biblical sources, usually passages from the writings of great saints.

Near the end of each of the four volumes that make up the full Liturgy of the Hours is an appendix of poems, most by Catholic authors, but some by non-Catholics, including George Herbert's beautiful one entitled "Love (III)":

Love bade me welcome; yet my soul drew back,
Guilty of dust and sin.
But quick-ey'd Love, observing me grow slack
From my first entrance in,
Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning,
If I lacked anything.
"A guest," I answer'd, "worthy to be here":
Love said, "You shall be he."
"I, the unkind, ungrateful? Ah, my dear
I cannot look on Thee."
Love took my hand, and smiling did reply,
"Who made the eyes but I?"
"Truth, Lord, but I have marr'd them;
let my shame
Go where it doth deserve."
"And know you not," says Love, "who bore the blame?"
"My dear, then I will serve."
"You must sit down," says Love, "and taste
my meat."
So I did sit and eat.

In his wonderful biography of Herbert, Music at Midnight (University of Chicago Press, 2014), John Drury notes that in 1938 Simone Weil encountered "Love (III)" during a time of personal crisis as events were unraveling toward World War II. She called it "the most beautiful poem in the world."

Msgr. David Hubba

EASTER THANKS

We are very grateful to all who helped to make our Holy Week and Easter celebrations so beautiful. Many thanks to our ushers/greeters, altar servers, readers, music ministers, ministers of Holy Communion, and the members of our parish Art & Environment Committee who decorated the upper church, Mary's Chapel in the lower church, and the school gym.

A special thank you to our sacristan Tom Moran, Dr. Michael Petrella, our master of ceremonies for the Easter Vigil, and the members of the Parish Pastoral Council and other volunteers who helped to distribute the books given to parishioners. Thank you all!

DID YOU RECEIVE YOUR INVITATION?

Over the course of the next three weekends, Saint Joseph Church will welcome 80 children to the table of the Lord for the first time.

First Communions will be celebrated today and at the 5:00 pm Masses on Saturday, May 6 and May 13 and at both the 10:30 am UC and 12 noon Masses on Sunday, May 7 and May 14. Please join us for these beautiful celebrations and be sure to keep all of our First Communicants in your prayers.

SHARING GOD'S BLESSINGS

On May 27, 2017, seven men will be ordained as priests at the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark. Five of the men are resident seminarians of Immaculate Conception Seminary; one is a resident seminarian of Redemptoris Mater; and one studied at the Pontifical North American College in Rome.

Although each new priest took a different journey in responding to God's call, all of them share a deep humility at being called to the priesthood and the common desire to do the will of God and serve His Church.

Thank you for your support of the Sharing God's Blessings Annual Appeal which provides funding to our seminaries. If you have not yet made your pledge, please pick up a brochure in our church literature racks.

"CATHOLICISM"

Join us again on Wednesday, May 3 at 9:30 am in the Jackson Room of the lower church for the next episode of this remarkable series.

Episode 6 - A Body Both Suffering and Glorious: The Mystical Union of Christ and The Church

Clearly answering the question, "What is the Church?" Bishop Barron presents the reality of the Church as "one, holy, catholic and apostolic." The Body of Christ can be seen on earth from the Church's center in Rome to the cities of New York, Sao Paulo, Manila, Namugongo and Uganda, while still escaping total understanding as the mystical union between Christ and his Church. Bishop Barron also explores the Catholic conviction that the life and presence of Christ continues to embrace humanity in all its joys and sorrows through the presence of the Church.

Journey around the world and deep into the Faith with Bishop Robert Barron every Wednesday through May 31 (except April 12). There is no cost.
