LETTERS OF HOPE NEEDED

The Teens of Saint Joseph's
Youth Ministry

have continued their mission of helping others throughout the COVID-19 crisis, and they are now in need of a little support themselves.

Saint Joseph parishioners are invited to WRITE A LETTER OF ENCOURAGEMENT TO OUR TEENS—help lift their spirits during this challenging time with some gentle words of wisdom and hope. The letters will be distributed by our Youth Minister.

Write one note and put "Attention Ellen" on the envelope. The letter can be mailed to the parish office/rectory at 105 Harrison St., New Milford, NJ 07646 or dropped off in the locked mailbox in front of the rectory.

ALL LETTERS MUST BE RECEIVED BY JUNE 12.

Thank you for your love and support! It will mean a lot to our young people.

FAMILY PROMISE WALK-IN DINNER PROGRAM —JUNE 9

"I was hungry and you gave me to eat, ..." Matt. 25:35

Homeless adults and families that were staying at the county shelter in Hackensack are now dispersed to a variety of hotels, but they still need food support.

On Tuesday, June 9, St. Joseph's Social Concerns Committee, with help from our parishioners, will be preparing a meatloaf dinner for approximately 150 people in need.

A few of us will deliver the food to the loading dock at the Housing, Health and Human Services Center in Hackensack. They have another group of volunteers who will deliver the dinners.

If you would like to help prepare a part of the dinner in your own home, your help will be most welcome!

Please call Joan at 201-265-5823 for further information.

If you would like to help by making a monetary contribution, your donation will be greatly appreciated! Make the check payable to St. Joseph Church and mark it for the "Walk-in Dinner Program." Please mail your check to the parish office/rectory at 105 Harrison St., New Milford, NJ 07646, or drop it in the mailbox outside the rectory. God truly blesses us through the people we serve.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I suppose there are dreaded moments in just about everybody's work. For priests, perhaps the most unwelcome, at least insofar as it impacts the duty of preaching, is to come up with a satisfactory homily or bulletin article for Trinity Sunday, which is far from easy. So it is my pleasure to escape this difficulty by devoting this piece to college graduation, which has suffered evaporation this year because of the viral rampage.

Not so long ago, Jon Krakauer wrote a book called Into the Wild, which dealt with the sad but fascinating story of Christopher McCandless, son of wealthy parents, who graduated from Emory University and promptly made up his mind to change the whole expected course of his life. Following the example of two men he greatly admired, the author Jack London and the nature photographer John Muir, he resolved to go on a journey of self-discovery, in his case, to Alaska to live in solitude. The book was made into a movie, of which I recently caught the ending.

Christopher first rid himself of almost all his possessions, selling his car, giving his savings—$25,000—to charity, and burning the cash in his wallet (ouch!). He then hitchhiked to the wilderness north of Mount McKinley and inhabited an old abandoned bus. Four months later, moose hunters found his body.

The film includes a connection Christopher formed with an elderly man, who, at one point, said to him: "When you forgive, you love. And when you love, God's light shines on you." Among the items pinned to the wall of Chris's bus was a short note, written when he was in extreme trouble and close to death. It read,

"Happiness [is] only real when shared." It was a lesson he learned tragically late.

I couldn't help comparing his surrendering his possessions to the Gospel passage about the rich young man Jesus invites to give up his wealth in order to follow him (Mt 19, 16-22). McCandless certainly embraced that call to poverty, whatever his rationale may have been.

Anyway, to our parish's new college graduates: Congratulations on the successful completion of this phase of your education. If you will be job hunting, the best of good outcomes to you. If graduate school is next, study well. And may you enjoy the summer as much as possible.

Msgr. David Hubba
