FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

We are entering harvest time. For many, it is a time that marks the success of prior planning and hard work. It is also a time for us to appreciate once again the bounty of God's creation. Psalm 65 addresses God in beautiful terms in this regard:

You crown the year with your goodness.
Abundance flows in your steps.
in the pastures of the wilderness it flows.
The hills are girded with joy,
the meadows covered with flocks,
the valleys are decked with wheat.
They shout for joy, yes, they sing.
(Ps 65, 11-14)

Wendell Berry is the author of many wise essays, poems and novels. He is a Kentuckian who gave up a university teaching career to take up small-scale farming, the life of five generations of his ancestors.

I first made his acquaintance by coming across his novel Jayber Crow, which is about a man who had once attended a seminary, then emerged from his education as someone who was "confused and hopeful and self-deluded," in addition to being "alone and in need and helpless." He eventually became the barber of the small town of Port William for the rest of his life, an occupation that gave him a chance to observe, talk and deal with people of all kinds. (One of them was a man who, as Jayber put it, "had ... plenty of intelligence—plenty more than he ever used, in fact.") And, along the way, he managed to improve his grasp of common sense, of which, he admitted, "I have always had just short of enough ..."

Wendell Berry has long been an eloquent spokesman for agrarianism, with a life rooted in its traditional values. In his recent book of essays, The Art of Loading Brush, he describes them, including:

- "An elated, loving interest in the use and care of the land, and in all the details of the good husbandry of plants and animals."
- "An informed and conscientious submission to Nature, and her laws of conservation, frugality, fullness or completeness and diversity."
- "Respect for work and (as self-respect) for good work. This implies an understanding of one's life's work as a vocation and a privilege, as opposed to a 'job' and a vacation."

- "An acknowledged need for neighbors and a willingness to be a neighbor."

One of Berry's essays has an eloquent appeal to us to respect and revere God's creation, and to acknowledge our obligation to it.

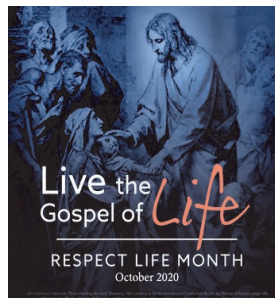

We have lived by the assumption that what was good for us would be good for the world. And this has been based on the even flimsier assumption that we could know with any certainty what was good even for us. We have fulfilled the danger of this by making our personal pride and greed the standard of our behavior toward the world—to the incalculable disadvantage of the world and every living thing in it...

We have been wrong. We must change our lives, so that it will be possible to live by the contrary assumption that what is good for the world will be good for us. And that requires that we make the effort to know the world and to learn what is good for it. We must learn to cooperate in its processes, and to yield to its limits. But even more important, we must learn to acknowledge that the creation is full of mystery, we will never entirely understand it. We must abandon arrogance and stand in awe. We must recover the sense of the majesty of creation, and the ability to be worshipful in its presence. For I do not doubt that it is only on the condition of humility and reverence before the world that our species will be able to remain in it.

Msgr. David Hubba

TODAY IS RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY

The Gospel of life is intrinsic to the whole Christian life and foundational to the decisions we make on a daily basis. For, "the Gospel of God's love for man, the Gospel of the dignity of the person and the Gospel of life are a single and indivisible Gospel" (EV 2).*

BRING YOUR OWN WATER

TO MASS NEXT WEEKEND

Holy water is a sacramental—a sacred sign that reminds of our baptism and prepares us to receive grace. Unfortunately, due to COVID-19 restrictions, the church's holy water fonts have had to remain empty.

In honor of the miracle of Our Lady of Fatima (which is remembered on October 13) you may bring regular tap water (in your own container) to Mass next weekend—October 10-11. After Mass, kindly approach one of our priests outside the church on the front plaza to request that your water be blessed.

PUBLIC MASS GUIDELINES

- Please remember to WASH YOUR HANDS for at least 20 seconds before coming to Mass.
- ARRIVE EARLY (20 minutes before Mass) and safely line up outside. Doors will open 15 minutes before Mass. Given the spacing requirement, those who come late may be asked to kindly return at another Mass time.

- ENTER via Elm St. or Harrison St. doors ONLY. (Grand St. entrance is handicapped-access only).
- HAND SANITIZER is available and must be used upon entering and exiting.
- You will be seated in alternating pews.
- No physical contact during the Sign of Peace.

- When processing forward to receive, keep mask on and follow the blue floor markings.
- PAUSE AT THE SOLID BLUE LINE, and WAIT until a priest/minister is available.
- Holy Communion is permitted in the HAND ONLY.
- Once the consecrated host is placed in your hand, step to the side, remove your mask briefly to consume, then immediately reposition your mask and return to your seat.

AFTER FINAL BLESSING:

- REMAIN IN YOUR PEW until a minister instructs you to move; exit the pew when prompted and proceed directly outside onto the campus.
- No private prayer or gathering after Sunday Mass is permitted to allow for church cleaning.

OTHER PARISH BUILDINGS REMAIN CLOSED & VIRTUAL MEETINGS CONTINUE

Except for our Parish Offices, all parish buildings REMAIN CLOSED until further notice to in-person meetings of any kind.

A SPECIAL GIFT TO OUR CHURCH

The lovely image of the Madonna and Child seen on the cover of our bulletin (and opposite) comes from a fresco painted by the Italian Renaissance master, Bernardino di Betto (1454-1513), commonly called Pinturicchio ("the little painter"). The original can be found in the Church of Santa Maria Maggiore, Spello, Italy. This beautiful reproduction was given in memory of Carol Hubba (Monsignor's sister) by her husband Richard Bonath. It will soon be hung in Mary's Chapel on the wall near the cornerstone of our original church.
