Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The first son in today's Gospel said he would do his father's bidding, but did not. The second son balked at first, but then repented and did as he was asked. What service is God calling me to do? Which son am I more like?

Vigésimo Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En el Evangelio de hoy, el primer hijo dijo que seguiría las órdenes de su padre, pero no lo hizo. El segundo hijo se opuso al principio, pero luego se arrepintió e hizo lo que se le había pedido. ¿Cuál es el servicio que Dios me pide hacer? ¿A cuál hijo me parezco más yo?

LIFE TEEN

MESSAGE FOR PARENTS

Parents, below is a list of topics that your youth will be discussing in the following Sundays. We would ask that you discuss these topics with your teens. Questions? Contact Liz Ortiz at 433-2777 ext. 119 or attend any of the Life Nights. Parents are always welcome.

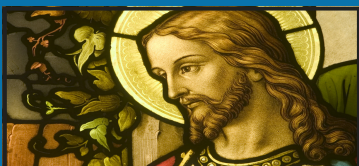

10/2 Topic: Picture Perfect

Picture Perfect Life Night is the introduction to our semester on sacraments. The goal is to help teens understand what a sacrament is and why they were given to the Church. Take some time with your teen this week talking about the seven sacraments of our faith.

10/16 Topic: Rise and Walk

Rise and Walk Life Night will focus on the power of the sacraments of healing and on God's desire to heal us, both physically and spiritually. God is not only our loving Father, but also the Divine Physician that desires to heal our brokenness and make us whole. Here are a few discussion questions that you and your teenager can talk about: 1) Why is spiritual healing more important than physical healing? 2) How did the paralyzed man in scripture experience both kind of healing?
