He said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.” The others at table said to themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?” But he said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

— Lk 7:48-50

Luego le dijo a la mujer: “Tus pecados te han quedado perdonados”. Los invitados empezaron a preguntarse a sí mismos: “¿Quién es éste, que hasta los pecados perdona?” Jesús le dijo a la mujer: “Tu fe te ha salvado; vete en paz”. — Lc 7, 48-50

Living the Gospel...

Helping Others Hear Their Call

This weekend we have the pleasure and honor to welcome Fr. Don Hying, Rector of St. Francis Seminary. Fr. Don will be celebrating all of our Masses this weekend and sharing and updating us on the seminary and vocations in our Archdiocese. I am sure you will agree, this is a vital ministry for us to support and pray for. Part of our Stewardship Campaign and Faith in our Future endeavors in the Archdiocese go toward ensuring we have priests in our future to minister to our people. Personally, as product of a St. Francis Seminary formation and training, I can assure you it is money well spent and prayers heard and responded to. In true St. Mark style, I know you will make Fr. Don feel at home with us and continue to keep him and the seminary in your prayers.

Today's gospel is one of those pearls from Luke. Apart from this poignant story of the woman who anoints Jesus' feet, which is in of itself a remarkable account of Jesus' forgiveness and the woman's trust in God, we also have chapter 8:1 of Luke right after it. In a couple of sentences Luke tells us of the women who follow Jesus. Some are named, others are not, "Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, Joanna, the wife of Herod's steward Chuza, Susanna, and many others who provided for them out of their resources."

This short passage of just one of the Gospels has always fascinated me. Who are these women, what are their stories and why do they follow Jesus. Not only do they follow him they also work with the apostles to "provide for them out of their resources!" I know there are several books out there that help to speak to this issue, so I would just simply add, that these women two thousand years ago, also left families, jobs, husbands, lives behind to follow Jesus, one of them, Mary, called Magdalene will become the great Apostle of the Resurrection and announce the risen Christ to all. They are heroes of the Gospel that we know little about, but without whom the story would not unfold the same way.

I leave you with how both the story of the woman anointing Jesus and the women who follow him speak to Jesus and his desire to include all people. Not only does he include but he empowers others to find their true calling and serve God. For me this continues to be the biggest stumbling block to us as people, as Christians and as Church. What do we do with those who don't fit in or are excluded, what do we do with and how do we treat the "sinners" or the outcasts of our own lives? Sure we may do a good job of accepting them, but Jesus' message is even greater, accept them and promote them to know God's love. That is never easy for any of us, but it is the radical message of the Gospel.

Ayudando a otros a escuchar su llamado

Este fin de semana tenemos el placer y honor de dar la bienvenida a el Padre Don Hying, Rector del Seminario de San Francisco. El celebrara todos las misas este fin de semana nos actualizara sobre el seminario y las vocaciones en nuestra Arquidiócesis. Estoy seguro de que estarán de acuerdo, este es un ministerio vital para nosotros. Parte de las campañas de administración y la de fe en nuestros futuro en la Arquidiócesis van a asegurar que tengamos sacerdotes para servir a nuestro pueblo en nuestro futuro. Personalmente, como producto de una formación en el Seminario San Francisco, les puedo asegurar que es dinero bien invertido y oraciones escuchadas y respondidas. Se que harán que el padre Don se sienta en casa con nosotros y continuaran manteniéndolo a el y el seminario en oración.

El evangelio de hoy es una de esas perlas de Lucas. Aparte de esta conmovedora historia de la mujer que unge los pies de Jesús, es en sí un mismo relato que trata sobre el perdón de Jesús y la confianza de la mujer en Dios, también tenemos capítulo 8:01 de Lucas después. En un par de frases Lucas nos dice de las mujeres que siguen a Jesús. Algunos son nombrados, otros no, "María, llamada Magdalena, de los cuales siete habían salido los demonios, Juana, mujer de Cusa, intendente de Herodes, Susana y otras muchas que dan de sus recursos".

Este breve pasaje de uno solo de los Evangelios siempre me ha fascinado. ¿Quiénes son estas mujeres, ¿cuáles son sus historias y por qué el seguir a Jesús. No sólo los que le siguen también trabajan con los apóstoles a "proveer para ellos de sus recursos!" Sé que hay varios libros por ahí que hablan de este tema, así que sólo sería añadir, que estas dos mujeres hace dos mil años, también dejaron familias, trabajos, esposos, vidas por seguir a Jesús, una de ellas, María, llamada Magdalena se convertirá en el gran apóstol de la Resurrección y anuncio a Cristo resucitado a todos. Son héroes del Evangelio de las cuales sabemos poco, pero sin las cuales la historia no se desarrollaría de la misma manera.

Os dejo con la forma que tanto la historia de la mujer que unge a Jesús y las mujeres que lo siguen hablan con Jesús y su deseo de incluir a todas las personas. No sólo incluyen, pero que permite a otros a encontrar su verdadera vocación y servir a Dios. Para mí esto sigue siendo el mayor obstáculo para nosotros como personas, como cristianos y como Iglesia. ¿Qué hacemos con aquellos que no encajan o son excluidos, ¿qué vamos a hacer con y cómo tratamos a los pecadores " o los marginados de nuestras propias vidas? Claro que podemos hacer un buen trabajo de aceptarlos, pero el mensaje de Jesús es aún mayor, aceptarlos y promoverlos a conocer el amor de Dios. Eso nunca es fácil para ninguno de nosotros, pero es el mensaje radical del Evangelio.

Thank You

As the school year comes to a close, I just wanted to share a few words of gratitude to so many at the school (the soon to be Catholic Academy). Our graduations were wonderful and our young people from Kindergarten all the way up make us very proud. Thanks to so many who have worked with them over the years, our schools are a blessing that will carry these young people forward.

Al llegar nuestro año escolar a su fin, sólo quería compartir unas palabras de agradecimiento a tantos en la escuela (el que pronto será la Academia Católica). Nuestras graduaciones eran maravillosos y nuestros jóvenes desde kinder hasta la prepa nos hicieron muy orgullosos. Gracias a tantos que han trabajado con ellos durante los años, nuestras escuelas son una bendición que llevará a estos jóvenes a seguir adelante

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus wants you to show love for your family. When someone in your family is tired, he wants you to give them something to eat or drink. He wants you to put a pillow under his or her head or cover him or her with a blanket. He wants you to help by washing dishes, taking out the trash, and playing with your baby sister. When you make your family comfortable, you get closer to God.

Prayer

Lord, I am sorry for my sins. Bring me close to you.

Mission for the Week

I will give everyone in my family a glass of ice water.

Parish Evangelization

"There are no strangers here... only friends we haven't met."

Imagine a statue of a young man dressed in a brown Franciscan habit, holding an open Bible. A very young child is standing on the Bible, talking to the man. Do you know the saint whom this statue represents? The child is Jesus, and the man is Anthony of Padua. Early in his life, Anthony learned that what he wanted was not always what God wanted. Anthony became an outstanding preacher. And, as a Franciscan friar, he was very poor, and also had a great love for the poor. He converted many people through his stories and his works of mercy. According to tradition, he had experienced a vision of the Child Jesus, which is why many statues of Anthony show him holding a Bible with the Child Jesus on it. Today is the feast of St. Anthony of Padua; but because it is also Sunday, the feast day of celebration is transferred to Monday, June 14th.

Now here's another question: what is the difference between a friar and a monk? Monks live in monasteries or abbeys and have an Abbot as a superior and share a more vertical sense of community. Friars are brothers to each other, and together are brothers to everyone, sharing a more horizontal related life as they go out into the world. There are five religious Orders who share this life: Franciscans, Carmelites, Augustinians, Dominicans and Servites.

Franciscan friars wear a brown robe and hood (called a habit) with a white cord and sandals. They are also known as Friars Minor (Friar = brother, and Minor = not Major League, but Minor League – without power, prestige, money and no need to climb and control...) they are called to meet every person with respect and joy, with love, openness, and acceptance. Their white cord has three knots tied within it to symbolize their vows of the three values of the Gospel that Jesus taught each of us and how we are all called to live them in our own state of life, whether married or single or in a religious community. The first knot represents Poverty – how we relate to material things, as gifts of the Lord to enjoy and share, not to hoard for our own selfish use. The second knot represents Chastity – how we relate to ourselves and others, always with respect and love, whether single, married, or living in a community. The third knot represents Obedience – how we are all called to listen to God's word and not just our own, as God speaks to us through Scripture, the Church, in our hearts and through others.

St. Anthony of Padua was a "Gentle Evangelizer!" St. Francis taught us that we are all called to the Gospel values of Poverty, Chastity, and Obedience. We are all called to listen to God's will and not to do whatever we want to do. This week, as "Gentle Evangelizers," (+) try to live the three knots with every friend you know, beginning with yourself, and with every stranger you meet!

Conclusion of the Year for Priests

Pope Benedict XVI declared a special Year for Priests beginning on June 19, 2009 and ending in Rome with a gathering of priests with him on June 9-11, 2010. The year was designated to coincide with the 150th anniversary of the death of St. John Vianney, the Cure of Ars, patron saint of priests.

During this Year for Priests the Holy Father asked the faithful to pray for priests, to affirm them in their ministry, to encourage them to be faithful in their call as ministerial priests, and to pray for more vocations. The Vocations Committee of St. Mark's wish to thank all of you for doing so during this past year. We remind you that our priests continue to need your prayers. Please remember them, our deacons, as well as all who are serving our Lord in religious life, daily as you pray to the Blessed Trinity.

Dear Lord, we pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5). May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross. May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

Señor Jesús, te rogamos que tu Santísima Madre cubra con su manto a los sacerdotes y, por su intercesión, les dé fuerza para ejercer su ministerio. Pedimos que María guíe a tus sacerdotes para que sigan las mismas palabras de ella: "Hagan lo que él les diga" (Jn 2, 5). Que les enseñe a tener el mismo corazón que tenía San José, esposo castísimo de María. Que el corazón traspasado de la Santísima Virgen les inspire a recibir a todos los que sufren al pie de la cruz. Que sean sacerdotes santos, encendidos con el fuego de tu amor que sólo buscan tu mayor honor y Gloria y la salvación de las almas. Amén.
