CrossWoods is a six day Adventure Camp that is packed full of excitement and life lessons. You will learn to trust yourself, your friends, and your God in new and wonderful ways.

CrossWoods' campers learn that in taking the risk to do new challenging activities; they become more willing to trust themselves more fully. Mountain Biking, rock climbing, kayaking and a whole lot of other activities are all part of the standard fare at a CrossWoods Adventure Camp.

You don't want to miss it!

Community Expectations

As a participant in the Camp Crosswoods week I will uphold the following community behavior expectations”

1. To participate with the entire camp community.
2. To respect others. No physical or verbal fighting, bullying or put-downs.
3. To have a positive attitude and respect the group and leaders. This includes being on time for all activities and obeying curfews.
4. To stay within the boundaries set by the leadership.
5. To give your cell phone to a leader. You can only use it for music with headphones on the way to and from camp.
6. To obey the law as it applies to people my age. The use of alcohol, drugs, cigarettes & the possession of firearms, weapons & fireworks is illegal.*

I have read and understand the community expectations. I know that if I don't meet these expectations I could be sent home at my expense, my parents will be notified and/or I could lose privileges while at camp or future youth events.
