IT'S TIME TO SIGN UP FOR THE 2014

ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE "BREAK BREAD" DINNER GROUPS

WHAT: We invite you to sign up for a parish dinner group. The purpose of the dinner groups is purely social. Come and meet new people in our church community by sharing 4 social get-togethers (meals) this year. There are many different "groups" of people who form this parish and this is a chance to widen your circle of acquaintances.

HOW: The dinner group member who has agreed to host the first dinner will call you to set the date, time, and location, the formality of the occasion and whether or not children are invited. You will be asked to bring a dish: hor d'ouevers, salad, or dessert. The host will choose the menu and provide the main dish. Guests contribute the rest of the meal, the warmth, and fellowship. At the conclusion of the meal, the group should schedule the next date for the dinner group to meet.

WHY: An Irish priest has been heard to exclaim, "You don't really know a man until you've eaten a sack of flour with him." Please join us in getting to know each other.
