Pastor's Notebook: Divine Mercy — April 15

Administrative Professionals Week is celebrated April 22-28 this year. Here is a snapshot view of some of the work that our Front Office people do in helping our parishioners.

Dolly McKay – Along with answering the telephone and greeting visitors, some of my duties include the creation and implementation of the mailings you receive from Fr. Jim or Terry Walter concerning parish life and your sacrificial giving. Another of my responsibilities is room scheduling and managing the process for the entire parish—school, Westside and Downtown. If you need to reserve a room in any of these places, you can speak with me about it.

Alicia Pasion – One of my responsibilities is publishing the Sunday Bulletin. It's up to me to get all the information from the various ministries formatted and placed in the space allotted for each group. I also choose the artwork and layout of it. I am also responsible for the worship aids that are used during Mass as well as the special ones created for Christmas and Easter. My newest responsibility is as Webmaster for the Parish website as well as maintaining and editing it and the St. Michael Facebook Page.

Mary-Jo Kelley – My main area of responsibility is to assist the Stewards in Faith Formation. I help them with the production of the homework materials that you receive every month in F.A.I.T.H. (Faith Alive in the Home). I am also responsible for enrolling your children in the F.A.I.T.H. classes and parents in Baptism classes. Parishioners also speak with me to schedule the baptism of their children. It is my responsibility to record every sacrament you and your children have received whether it is here at St. Michael's or in another parish.

Elizabeth Wrazien – I provide administrative support for Kathleen Wright, the Steward of Time, Talent and Evangelization. This includes providing support for many of the welcoming ministries and helping volunteers connect with the various ministries in the parish. I also handle the processing and tracking of all paperwork for the Safe Environment Program.

Myrna Welsh- Membership Registration and Parishioner Data Base:
The most meaningful part of my job is welcoming new members to St. Michael Parish. I am the contact person for those interested in becoming parishioners, answer questions about our parish, and provide them with registration forms. Once a registration form is returned, the information is entered in our data base and they become an official member of our parish. A Welcome Packet is sent to our new members filled with opportunities and information how to become a partner in the mission and an active member in the many Time & Talent ministries available at St. Michael's.

The parishioner data base is a significant responsibility, in that we serve our parishioners by keeping correct information in their files, and the members of the parish staff depend on the accuracy of the information entered. Therefore, it is important that the data base be kept current on a day to day basis.

REFLECTION MOMENT

When the risen Christ encounters his disciples in the locked room he adds a new Beatitude to the ones we've heard proclaimed before: Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed. Stewards of the mysteries of God's love do not need proof of the risen Christ. They know it because their lives have been transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit who has breathed new life into them. As stewards of this great gift it is appropriate to reflect on how we in turn add new life into our parish communities.

The Atrium and Your Child

A place for children to draw closer to God.

A three-year-old sits at a child-size table, slowly and deliberately spooning beans from one cup and then back into another. He knows where the material is stored and returns it when he is done, then selecting an apron and sitting down to arrange flowers. A four-year-old sets a model altar with the articles of the Mass, then invites an adult to come light the candles and sing with her. Two five-year olds move figures in a diorama that tells a scripture story. Later, they choose tracing packets and make books about the scripture they have experienced.

Welcome to the Atrium. The Atrium is a place where children and adults gather to draw closer to God as part of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd ministry. This is a Montessori based, faith formation ministry based on scripture and liturgy with sessions for children ages 3-6, 6-9, and 9-12. Two-hour sessions meet weekly from October to May each year.

How to Learn More. Registration for 2012-13 sessions will begin soon. If you are interested in registering your child, attending an information event, or participating as an adult helper or materials maker, please contact Mary Trotter 292-7145 or mdtrotter@comcast.net. We look forward to journeying with you and your child.

April 2012

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As you know, our governor recently signed into law a bill that redefines marriage in the State of Washington. A signature drive is currently underway seeking to place this matter before the voters of our state in November. Referendum 74 will ask voters to approve or reject this redefinition of marriage.

In order to qualify for the November ballot, Referendum 74 must receive approximately 120,000 valid signatures of registered Washington voters by June 6. If the Referendum does not qualify for the November ballot because of a lack of signatures, the legal redefinition of marriage will go into effect June 7. We bishops have already made known our strong opposition to the redefinition of marriage, and we will continue to do so.

Because we believe that this issue is critically important, we support Referendum 74 and have approved the gathering of signatures in our parishes over the next few months. Your pastors have received from us information regarding the signature drive, and we requested that they not collect signatures on Palm Sunday or Easter Sunday. After Easter, signatures may be gathered on Referendum 74.

Why do we support Referendum 74 and ask you to do so as well? Briefly, here are the reasons:

1. The Referendum would place this matter before the voters of our state. We believe that the redefinition of marriage is such a far-reaching and radical decision that it should not be left simply to a vote of legislators and the signature of the governor.
2. It has often been said in recent months that the redefinition of marriage as a contract between two persons will give same-sex couples the rights enjoyed by married couples. It is important that you understand that same-sex couples in registered domestic partnerships in our state already enjoy the rights and privileges of married couples. These rights were previously enacted into our state law.
3. Marriage between a man and a woman is the foundation of our society. The key to understanding the Church's view of marriage can be found in the two fundamental ends or purposes toward which it is oriented: the good of the spouses and the procreation of children. Man and woman are created as complementary in God's plan, and God established marriage precisely so that man and woman could participate in his love, selflessly give themselves to each other in love, and enjoy the benefits of their love. Married love is also life-giving: according to God's plan, the crowning fruit of marriage is the bearing of children. These two meanings are inseparable.
4. It is important to remember that all Christians are called to chastity, and sexual intercourse is so intimate and significant that it is intended only for a man and woman in marriage. For married couples, chastity involves their faithfulness and respect for one another. For all unmarried persons, chastity means that they refrain from sexual relations. This is the constant teaching of the Church.

5. Some have suggested that the Catholic Church's opposition to the redefinition of marriage amounts to discrimination. That is not the case. Treating different things differently is not unjust discrimination. Marriage can only be between a man and a woman because of its unique ends, purpose and place in society. The word "marriage" isn't simply a label that can be attached to different types of relationships. Instead, "marriage" reflects a deep reality – the reality of the unique, fruitful, lifelong union that is only possible between a man and a woman. There is nothing else like it, and it can't be defined or made into something that it isn't.
6. Why does the Catholic Church care so much about marriage? Because marriage is a fundamental good in itself and foundational to human existence and flourishing. Following the example of Jesus, the Church cares about the whole person, and all people, and the common good. Marriage affects everyone and is never just a "private" issue; it has public significance and many public consequences.
7. Does the Catholic Church teach that people who experience same-sex attraction have equal dignity? Of course! Every single human person has inviolable dignity and worth. In keeping with this conviction, the Church teaches that persons with same-sex attraction must be accepted with respect, compassion, and sensitivity. We recognize that they have been, and often continue to be, objects of scorn, hatred, and even violence in some sectors of society. An important Vatican document states, "It is deplorable that homosexual persons have been and are the object of violent malice in speech or in action. Such treatment deserves condemnation from the Church's pastors wherever it occurs." All persons should be treated with respect, sensitivity, and love. The Church calls everyone to holiness.

The Church's teaching about marriage and the gift of life is so rich that we cannot fully explain it in this brief letter. To assist you at this time, however, we have provided answers to some of the most frequently asked questions. In the months and years ahead, we will make it a priority in the Archdiocese to share with you the fullness and beauty of our teaching. Catholic teaching cannot be reduced to a sound bite! Because it comes from God, it is for our good, and living according to the Church's teaching brings us life, peace, fulfillment and hope.

Thank you for your attention to this letter. This is an important time for the State of Washington, and we ask you to support the gathering of signatures for Referendum 74 and to do everything you can to uphold the traditional definition of marriage in our state.

Sincerely in Christ,
