

1 CLASS NOTES

#7

Encounter the truth...

Theme – Commandments 4 and 5

Bible Narrative – Exodus 20:12-13, Romans 13:2, and 1 John 3:15-18

Check-in question: What is your favorite activity to do with your parents or grandparents?

Bible Study

Read Exodus 20:1-12

In your own words, summarize the 4th and 5th Commandments?

4th Commandment: Romans 13:1-2 and 4th Commandment in your Catechism

We know that the 4th Commandment refers to our parents and the Romans verse includes the government. Who are some other authorities in your life?

According to Romans 13:1-2, how should we view those in authority? What does this mean to you?

5th Commandment: 1 John 3:15-18 and 5th Commandment in your Catechism

What are ways that we can break the 5th Commandment? (“doing” things or “NOT doing” things)

1 John 3:15-18

What does God ask us TO DO in this Commandment? (how do we “help and support in every physical need” others and ourselves?)

2 SMALL GROUPS

Capture the truth...

Choose someone in authority whom you honor and respect. Write down the characteristics that you admire in this person or people. Share these with the group.

Using the notes and envelopes provided, write a letter of appreciation to the person or people that you choose.

3 AROUND THE TABLE

Reveal the truth...

Things to talk about this week:

Parents, tell your child something that you appreciate or admire about them.

Kids, tell your parents something that you appreciate or admire about them.

Discuss a conflict that you may have had with a person of authority in the past. What are some positive and God pleasing ways that you can handle these conflicts?

Don't forget to sign on and watch the video for next week! The topic is: Commandments 6-10
