Spiritual Gifts Key

Below is a list of spiritual gifts. Spiritual gifts are not the same as talents, but are spiritual strengths God gives for being a part of his work in the world. The list below is by no means exhaustive. There are many different attributes identified as spiritual gifts in the Bible, and even those are not complete listings of the ways God gifts people to do his work. This assessment and list below is simply meant to be a tool to help you better understand the gifts God is expressing in you. Throughout your life, as you grow, change, and experience different things your spiritual gifts may change. We hope that this list provides a glimpse into the part God has for you in his body now. To learn more about spiritual gifts you can look at 1 Corinthians 12:27-31; Romans 12:3-8; and Ephesians 4:11-16.

A. Faith—The gift to trust God for what can’t be seen and, pressing forward, to act upon the promises of God. (Romans 4:18-21; Hebrew Chapter 11)

B. Service/Helps—The gift to identify and take the initiative to meet the practical needs of others, freeing them to fulfill their own calling or to attend to personal needs, or urgent matters. (Acts 6:1-7)

C. Hospitality—The gift of helping others feel welcome, accepted, relaxed, and comfortable. (1 Peter 4:9-10)

D. Teaching—The gift to proclaim and clearly explain God’s Word in a manner that transforms the lives of others. (1 Corinthians 12:28; Acts 20:20-21; Romans 12:6-8; Titus 3:1-2)

E. Encouragement—The gift to provide encouragement, comfort, reassurance and support in ways that foster healing and wholeness (1 Thessalonians 5:11; Romans 12:8)

F. Mercy—The gift to detect the emotional pains of others. To feel compassion, listen and provide loving-care. (Luke 10:30-37; Romans 12:8; Matthew 20:29-34)

G. Giving—The gift to cheerfully contribute material resources above and beyond a tithe to others and the church. (2 Corinthians 8:1-7; Romans 12:8; Mark 12:41-44)

H. Leadership—The gift to instill vision, to motivate and direct people to be faithful to their calling and responsibilities. (Romans 12:8; Hebrew 13:7, 17; 1 Timothy 3)

I. Exhortation—The gift to stimulate faith and promote Christian Maturity in others. (Romans 12:8; Acts 11:23,24, 13:43, 14:22)

J. Administration—the gift to design and effectively execute plans managing people, resources, and time in order to reach the long range goals and objectives of the ministry team or church. (Titus 1:5; 1 Corinthians 12:28, 14:28-30)

K. Intercessory Prayer—The gift to pray for extended periods of time on a regular basis and frequently see direct results to those prayers (James 5:14-16, 1 Timothy 2:1-2; John 17; Colossians 1:9-12, 4:12-13; Acts 12:12; Luke 22:41-44)

Personality

God has designed us all with unique and different personality traits. Our personalities shape how we respond to other people and to opportunities. There are a number of very in-depth personality profiles available, the list below is not one of them. It is simply to help you better understand your personality and how it helps to shape your response to the world around you. Please remember, though as a society we often value certain personality characteristics over others, God is not that way. Our personality differences are all celebrated and valued by God, none are more desirable than others, they simply suit us for different things. Read down each column below and circle the words that best describe the way you feel you really are.

Experiences

The things we experience in our lives help to shape who we are, our passions, and how God uses us. We all have many different kinds of experiences (personal, relational, vocational, educational, spiritual) that impact us in various ways. Our experiences, positive and painful, can all shape who we are and be put to use for God. Below list three positive experiences that have impacted your life:

Putting your SHAPE into action at Summerbrook

At Summerbrook we believe that God is at work everywhere in our world, and it is our desire to join in the work he is doing and be a part of connecting the lost, helping them grow as disciples, and equipping them to serve. We all step into God’s work with our unique SHAPE.

Below is a list of areas and opportunities to serve at Summerbrook. Please do not be discouraged if you do not see something that you think links up with your specific gifts, passions, personality, and abilities. We can help you find the right ministry! There are needs for all gifts and abilities in all of our ministries, we just need your help to figure out that fit. And, in some cases, your passions may lead you to join God’s work in ministries we haven’t even considered yet. That is exciting to us, and we would love to help you explore the SHAPE God has given you in any way we can.
