Freedom Quartet

Here's the deal. Freedom Quartet is a complete surprise. Not just to quartet fans, but also to the quartet MEMBERS. A little over five months ago no one in our group had any idea that we would be embarking on this journey

The quartet's line up is the "crème de la crème" of Gospel Music. The new lead singer has an array of accolades and accomplishments and is best known for his days with Perfect Heart. He is Dale Shipley. Filling the baritone position for the group is Preston Garner. Not only is he a notable vocalist with a vast array of experience, he is also a music minister and worship pastor and has a clear understanding of leading an audience to the throne of God. Taking the bass position is one of the most talented bass singers to ever grace a Gospel music stage. He is none other than Burman Porter. Along with the solid and seamless tenor singing of John Rulapaugh, this combination is poised to be one of the most cutting edge and impacting Gospel music ministries of the decade.

Soul'd Out Quartet

In May of 2004, in answer to God's call on his life, Matt Rankin of Georgetown, Ohio started a journey to find men of kindred spirits and equal yoking to partner with him in a mission to fulfill that calling by evangelizing God's word through song. Now, in 2013, Matt's calling and dream have been realized in Soul'd Out Quartet. Soul'd Out Quartet, which is comprised of Dusty Barrett (tenor), Bryan Hutson (lead), Matt Rankin (baritone), Ian Owens (bass), and Michael Howard (pianist), is not only a vocal group continuing the heritage of Southern Gospel music, but is also and foremost a ministry team answering God's call as stated in Ephesians: He gave some apostles, and some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors, and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ

The Bowling Family

The Bowling Family combines talent, sincerity and experience to create a memorable concert experience. Their goal for the evening is to usher in the presence of God and celebrate the Christian message. They feel privileged and honored to enjoy the freedom to honor Christ with any and all of their abilities.

The group consists of Mike Bowling and his wife, Kelly, their daughter Hope and longtime friend Troy Peach. They bring you their stories and songs in a way that is reminiscent of days gone by. To watch them perform reminds us of a time when "all night singings" were the norm, and folks lined up early to visit with the singers and musicians. As in most things, musical styles come full circle. What is old is new, and what is new is old!! Musically, Mike, Kelly, Hope and Troy make us realize this. Somehow they have created a sound that is as refreshing as the sounds of the early 70s.

Jeff and Sheri Easter

The Easter's return for their second appearance on the TCCCS program. We are looking forward to another great night of music and blessing from this dynamic group.

For Jeff and Sheri, gospel music is genetically programmed into their DNA. As members of acclaimed musical families—Jeff's father is one of the Easter Brothers and Sheri's mother is a member of The Lewis Family—they grew up surrounded by the sound of people praising God through their musical gifts. In August of 1984, both were at the Albert E. Brumley Sundown to Sunup Gospel Singing in Arkansas. Jeff, who was playing bass for the Singing Americans at the time, took the opportunity to reintroduce himself to Sheri's mother Polly; they had met on a previous occasion. Polly introduced Jeff to Sheri and the two were married ten months later.

They are joined by their children, Madison and Morgan to present a marvelous evening of music, humor and most of all blessing.

Triumphant Quartet

Formed in 2002, the then named Integrity Quartet began their ministry together at the Louise Mandrell Theater in Pigeon Forge, TN. In December of 2004, after a nationwide contest to submit entries, Integrity Quartet changed their name to Triumphant Quartet.

2008 brought a new transition for Triumphant. They decided to take their ministry on the road full-time. Later that year, Jeff Stice was presented 2008 Musician of the Year by The Singing News Magazine. In 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012, Triumphant was voted by the Singing News fan awards as Favorite Male Quartet of the year for the fourth consecutive year. In addition to that honor, Eric Bennett was voted Favorite Bass Singer of the Year in 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012. Jeff Stice received the award as the 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 Singing News Favorite Musician of the Year during the same ceremonies.

Also in 2009, Triumphant received a GRAMMY® nomination for Best Southern, Country or Bluegrass Gospel Album, for their release, Everyday. In 2011, the quartet's song, Love Came Calling, was named Favorite song of the Year, as well as favorite Album of the Year by the Singing news magazine. Love Came Calling features the group's unmistakable quartet harmony, the number one hits "Love Came calling" and "Saved by Grace," were co-produced by Jeff Stice and Wayne Haun.

2012 started out as another wonderful year for Triumphant. Their current recording, Songs from the Heart came from each member of the group. Each member wrote two songs. They have just received their 3rd number one song, Almost Home, written by Scotty Inman. Also climbing the charts is their 2nd single release Lets all stand for America, written by David Sutton, from this same project. Triumphant's album, Song From The Heart, was named favorite Album of the Year by the Singing news magazine. With all of the accolades, numerous top 10 radio singles and continued success, the men of Triumphant keep their work in perspective. They are truly humbled and grateful for the support their fans have shown for their music and ministry. They reaffirm that their main focus is to keep God first in everything they do. Triumphant's powerful combination of talent, commitment, and unwavering faith insures that the years to come will bring even more success...in God's name.

Tates Creek "Gospel" Christian Concert Series is proud to present these fine artist for our 2014 series.

We want to thank the elders and ministerial staff of Tates Creek Christian Church for allowing us the opportunities to provide these concerts.

All concerts are "LOVE OFFERING" concerts and therefore we ask that you dig deep when offering times comes so that we can support these groups in a way that is befitting of God's work.

Expenses run high with these groups on the road and having families to support. Fuel cost are getting higher every day and the cost of food, clothing, vehicle maintenance, insurance and other items means that we must do our part in providing them with the means to keep their ministries out there.

You came through in 2013 and I am depending upon you to do it again in 2014.

Many of you have asked if we could have certain groups appear and I have tried to make that happen. Some are unable to come due to scheduling conflicts, other's because their agency will not work with us on a love offering basis and since we do not sell tickets for our Sunday evening concerts, the cost is prohibitive.

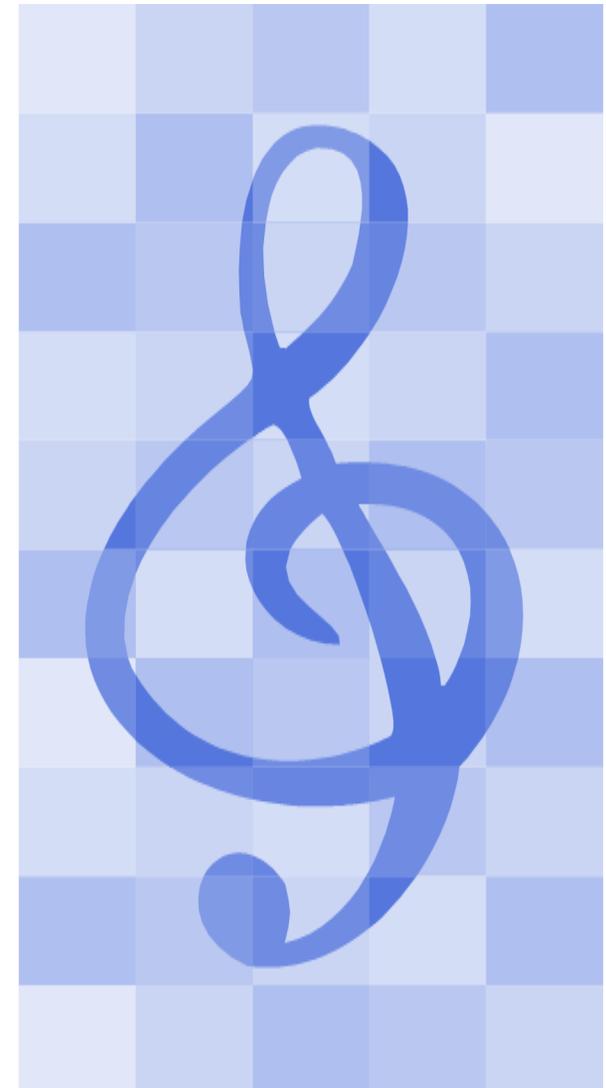

From time to time I am asked "What can I do to help with the concert series?" First of all, PRAY, pray that God will use the groups to reach the hearts of the listeners. Second, if you would be so inclined, you can give to help us build a financial base that one day will enable us to bring in those groups that because of cost, we now are unable to book.

If you desire to help, please contact me at bill.tcccs@gmail.com or you may call me at 859-523-8887.

Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the earth;
Break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises.
