Workaholic finds new joy

Testimony: A friend of mine who worked hard and played hard, he was a workaholic. He was always working and rarely took time off. He was very successful, but his life was empty. He was always looking for the next project to work on. He had no time for family or friends. He never seemed to be satisfied with what he had. He was always chasing the next big thing.

Then one day, he went to Teen Challenge. He was amazed at how much the program changed his life. He found peace and joy in a way he never thought possible. He discovered a newfound sense of purpose and meaning. He found a community that cared for him and supported him in his journey. He found a faith that gave him hope and a way to live a life that was fulfilling and meaningful.

He graduated from Teen Challenge and now runs his own business. He has found a balance between work and family. He is happy and content. He is grateful for Teen Challenge and the people who helped him find his way.
