

Fact Sheet for Texas Civil War Museum

What: The Texas Civil War Museum.

When: Opened January 25, 2006

Where: Texas Civil War Museum, 760 Jim Wright Freeway North, Fort Worth, Texas 76108-1222. Museum is located on West Loop 820 North. Take Silver Creek exit if you are traveling from Interstate 30; take the Clifford Street exit and double-back if you are traveling from the north.

Telephone: 817.246.2323; Fax 817.246.3951

Web site: www.texascivilwarmuseum.com

E-mail: charriman@texascivilwarmuseum.com

Hours: Tuesday-Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Admission: Adults $6, students ages 7 to 12 $3, children 6 and under are free when accompanied by an adult. Group discounts and active military discounts are available.

Why: The Texas Civil War Museum is a rare partnership between The Texas Division United Daughters of the Confederacy, and private collectors Ray and Judy Richey. The result is a non-profit educational museum and the largest Civil War museum west of the Mississippi River.

Special features: This extraordinary exhibit, one of the largest private Civil War collections in the nation, is housed in a 15,500-square-foot building. Also on display are flags from the largest collection in the state of Texas. The facility also contains a 75-seat theater that will show a specially commissioned movie entitled Our Homes – Our Rights, Texas in the Civil War. The movie will be shown every half-hour and features many of the artifacts in the museum. The Magnolia Mercantile Gift Shop will be open during museum hours and offers an array of Victorian Era and museum related merchandise.