TEXAS CIVIL WAR MUSEUM SCAVENGER HUNT

Directions: These items are located within the display areas. Look carefully to find both the very small and the rather large items. At the end of each “clue” below, in parenthesis, is the gallery area where the item can be found. If you need a map, ask the front desk.

Happy Hunting.

1. Some people might make a meal of the outside of me but others would use me to light their way. (Texas Confederate Collection)

---

2. I am made of brass but sometimes of iron. I am long and have a glass eye. I can help you “sea” things up close! (Naval Display)

---

3. Some say I look just like a wooden keg! I will make a heck of a noise and a mess if you happen to bump into my little arm! (Naval Display)

---

4. If you were going to fight in the mountains you would want to bring me along! My big brothers around me, may be stronger, but I’m just as loud and I can go lots of places they can’t. (Artillery Display)

---

5. I look just like a big funnel turned upside down! I can make things really hot around me! (U.S. Infantry Display)

---

6. I am made of brass or copper. I have a large hole in my side. The soldier that carried me into battle died from the same bullet. (Texas Confederate Collection)

---

7. I can make beautiful music...if you help me. It takes two hands and maybe a foot, but maybe not...my foot is still in storage! (Texas Confederate Collection)

---

8. I can help you cut up your meat and eat it too, if you only have one hand. (Medical Display)

---

9. I am small, but have lots of pages! You could write in me. The bullet that made a hole in me did not harm the one who carried me! (Texas Confederate Collection)

---

10. I am built of leather and rawhide. However, some say that I can make your hide “raw” while others say that I sit just like a rocking chair. (U.S. Cavalry Display)
11. I can help you stand up if you have lost a leg or even two. You could use me as firewood in a pinch! (Medical Display)
12. Are you hungry? Try me if you are! I was a meal for lots of starving sailors! Never mind the funny bugs and weevils...they will run when you begin to eat! (Naval Display)
13. I am Red, White, and Blue. I am not the flag of the United States of America, but I am a flag of some United States of America. I have 3 stripes and could have 7, 9, 10, 11, or 13 stars! (Texas Flag Display)
14. I am small iron rods that help fire a cannon. You may think you are looking at me but I am really looking at you as you walk past me both coming and going? (Artillery Display)
15. I am a small book, “religious” some say....! I have a lot of pages and most of them are covered with the blood of the soldier that carried me. (Confederate Infantry Display)
16. I am made to look pretty on the wrist or around the neck of a beautiful Texas woman. I am usually made of gold and silver but not this time! (Victorian Dresses)
17. I am only three years old and I already wear one of these! Momma says it will help me have a beautiful figure when I get older. (Victorian Dresses)
18. “I’ll stitch in time to save nine.” Sometimes I even go round and round, or a little part of me does! See, sewing is what I do! (Victorian Dresses)
19. Sometimes I would fly and sometimes I would sit in a tree, but now I sit on a pretty lady’s head. (Victorian Dresses)
20. I have 4 small wheels. My sides are made of wicker or heavy straw. I’m an early “go cart” for little people. (Victorian Dresses)

21. I wear a raincoat, and am made of a straw called wicker, but I was used in caring for the wounded on the battlefield, when there was no other! I carried items that would help you get plastered and sticky sometimes. (U.S. Medical Display)
22. You can beat on me if you wish—just do it to the time of the march! I’m a ranger...but not a Texas Ranger! (Confederate Cavalry Display)
23. When I went off to war, I got married but, left my real wife behind and took this one with me instead to help me with mending! What am I? (U.S. Infantry Display)
24. I could be a Judge’s gavel but the artillery boys used me because I would not make sparks. The artillery boys don’t like “sparks”. (Artillery Display)
25. I have a song in my heart and like your sweetheart I don’t mind a little squeezing once in a while! (U.S. Infantry: Musical Instruments)
26. I point things out to you and I can tell you “which direction to go” by just looking at my face! (U.S. Cavalry Display)
27. I have a fin, but I don’t swim; I fly. I was the design prototype of the Nerf Gun toy. But I am much more dangerous so don’t use me inside the house. (U.S. Infantry Display)
28. I am a satchel that rides on your back. My big “red” name is not what I am but who I was with in the fight at Gettysburg! (Artillery Display)
29. I was in the last battle of the Civil War. Loaded and ready to fire, I was dropped or left behind and the battlefield was my home for years and years. (Texas Confederate Display)

QUESTIONS 30-33 ARE ESSAY PERSONAL OPINION.

THE FIRST SET OF QUESTIONS IS FOR THE BOYS TO ANSWER.

AND THE SECOND SET OF QUESTIONS IS FOR THE GIRLS TO ANSWER.

Boys

30. If you are a young male and you lived in the 1860's there would be a good chance you would have to join the army. After looking at the infantry, cavalry, medical, navy and artillery, which branch of service would you join?

---

31. State your reason for choosing this branch.

---

---

32. Explain one thing you would personally enjoy about this branch of service. (Don't say cool uniforms or something that would apply to all the other branches of service.)

---

33. Explain one thing you would personally dislike about this branch of service. (Do not give a reason like bad weather or something that would apply to all the other branches service)

---

Girls

30. Most females who lived in the Victorian Era were not of the wealthy class of citizens. They would have had only one nice dress that they would have worn for church, parties, travel, and other nice events. If you could only choose one dress from the ones on display, which would it be?

---

31. State your reason for choosing this dress (give an additional reason other than color)

---

---

32. What would you personally enjoy about wearing it?

---

33. What would you personally dislike about wearing it?

---
