

Please write out your answer to the following questions and submit them by Monday, December 8 at midnight. You are welcome to email them or hand them in at class.

1. After tonight's session, how would you define emotions?
2. According to slide number 30, what is the primary cause of emotion? What other reasons might a person experience emotion?
3. List a few purposes for emotion that you believe will help you as you disciple others:
4. Do you have any unanswered questions? If so please email them to Kent (cc Rachel) by Sunday evening so we can incorporate the answer in next week's discussion.
