How NOT to Talk to Your Kids About SEX!

INFORMED

Today's kids are more informed about "sex" than ever before through Internet, sex education classes, pornography, and even through church groups.

Yet, kids are more troubled than ever before (STD's, AIDS, throat cancer, suicide, depression, physical abuse and drug and alcohol abuse are on the rise).

COURAGEOUS
HONOR BEGINS AT HOME

It takes courage for our kids to be able to say no to sex, avoid pornography, step away from the world, to live lives pure before the Lord. It takes courage for parents to be the only ones in the crowd to pull their kids out of an improper course, to step away from the norm of the world and follow after Christ.

Join us at RHEMA Counseling Associates as Audrey Werner of The Matthew 18 Group presents information and tools to help you talk to your kids about sex.

Audrey Werner, RN, B.S.N., Sex Education Expert on the Advisory Board for the American Academy of Biblical Counselors, and Professor at Master's International School of Divinity.
