Randi has always had a love for singing and the arts. She began leading worship in 1999 for her church's youth ministry. From 2002 – 2007, she served as the worship leader at a church plant in Houston. In 2004, Randi married Zach. They now have two children, Madysen and Ethan. In 2010, Randi graduated from The David Project, a worship leader training program, and began working part-time at a church in The Woodlands, TX. The Morrows joined The Light staff in 2011. “I have a passion for worshiping! We were created to worship the Lord, and I count it a privilege to be a part of leading God’s people into His presence.” Randi loves to spend time with Zach and her kids. She also enjoys reading.
