ABUNDANCE

“You crown the year with Your goodness, and Your paths drip with abundance.” (Psalm 65:11)

Many are the paths of the Redeemer (LORD/Jehovah) that “drip with abundance,” and the path of prayer is exceptionally abundant. A praying believer will never have to cry, “My need, my need. Oh woe is me.” But starving souls live at a distance from the mercy seat and become like parched fields in times of drought.

Prevailing with the strong one (God/Elohim) in wrestling prayer makes the believer strong. The nearest place to the gate of heaven is the throne of grace. If you are much alone with Jesus, you will have much assurance. If you are alone with Him but a little, your religion will be shallow, polluted with doubts, filled with fears, and not sparkling with the joy of the Redeemer (LORD/Jehovah).

Since the enriching path of prayer is open to the weakest saint, since no high attainments are required, since you are freely invited if you are a saint at all, then see to it, my dear reader, that you are often in private devotion. Be much on your knees.

Another path that is especially abundant is the secret walk of communion. Oh the delights of fellowship with Jesus! Earth has no words to calm a believer like leaning on Jesus.

Few Christians understand it. They live in the lowlands and seldom climb to the mountain top. They live in the outer court and never enter the holy place. They never take up the privilege of priesthood. At a distance they see the sacrifice, but they do not sit close to the priest to eat and enjoy the burnt offering.

Reader, always sit under the shadow of Jesus. Come up to that palm tree and take hold of the branches. Let your beloved be as an apple tree among the trees of the forest (Song of Solomon 2:3 “Like an apple tree among the trees of the woods, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down in his shade with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste”). Then you will be satisfied with abundance.

Oh Jesus, visit us with Your salvation.

For more information about the Names of God Bible, Inc. ministry please go to our web page at: www.tnogb.com