

How do I apply?

Please prayerfully consider this opportunity to serve and grow as a student leader. To apply, talk to one of the staff or email kelly@oreadcenter.com no later than Sunday, April 17th.

We will then set up an appointment to talk with your further.

Our desire for college students is best explained in Paul's prayer in Colossians 1:

that they may be filled with the knowledge of His will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding... that they may live a life worthy of the Lord and may please Him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God.

The Oread Center invites you to apply to...

Student Leadership Team

WHY? we envision a committed group of students who will connect their faith to their callings at the university and beyond and grow and mature in love for the church and each other

Inside... Our expectations, your development, how to apply

Our Expectations

We desire for students to grow in the gospel, recognize their diversity of gifts, mature in their callings and take responsibility for serving Christ and His body

- Agree with our Essentials of Faith*
- Spiritual formation through the “ordinary means of grace”: time in the Word and prayer, attending worship weekly, etc.
- Participate in the leadership development program & area(s) of responsibility outlined on the opposite page
- Maintain a faithful GPA based on your major, career goals, etc. and go to your classes
- Be above reproach with respect to attitude, purity, alcohol, etc.
- We also encourage, but do not require, that you pursue a mentor and make time to mentor others.

Your Development

Your Weekly Commitments:

- Biblical and theological training through participation in Sunday School, Waffles & Worldviews, and Bible studies
- A weekly leadership meeting (1.5 hours):
 - Prayer
 - Development through a 6-semester curriculum
 - Areas of Responsibility and ministry skill development explored below
- Serving in one or more of these areas of responsibility:
 - working with freshman (Bible study, discipleship, etc.)
 - leading or co-leading a Bible study
 - serving the local church (children, youth, mercy ministries)
 - hospitality with OC programs (greeting, set-up, engaging with new students)
 - organizing socials and retreats, service projects, weekly lunches, managing social media
 - growing in vocational excellence and faithfulness (ex. investing in an academic club, being mentored within your field)

* found at gepc.org -> “About Us” -> “Essentials”