

The Adventures in Prayer

Author: Catherine Marshall

There are many things I liked about this book. Just a few are listed below:

1. Catherine Marshall put scripture throughout the book. I think that books that are grounded in scripture are the best things to read next to reading the Bible.
2. There were parts that were written about the woman named, Corrie Ten Boom. She and her sister were prisoners and her sister died there. Corrie Ten Boom went on to be a great speaker after she was released. The former jailer heard her speak and was moved by her speech. He was moved and felt repentant.
3. Catherine Marshall wrote about several things in this book, but one of the main things that spoke to me was how she wrote about the fact that we should never “demand” things from God. He is in control and we should allow His leadership. A woman in the story concerning this was going to pray to God and demand that He heal her daughter and then she read in the Word that we should not ever “demand” God for anything. If we pray with faith, and it is His will, then the things we desire will happen.
