

WELCOME

From Our Pastor...

Welcome to Trace Creek this morning. We are right in the middle of one of the highlights on the "Christian calendar." I pray that in the many good things we enjoy during the holidays, we will find great joy in the birth of Jesus Christ. As the angel declared, "I bring you good tidings of great joy." If the announcement was joyous, even more so should be the reality of His coming. Tonight is our holiday fellowship in the FLC. Come join us at 6:00pm with your favorite dishes in hand. We will have a good meal together, fellowship for a little while, enjoy a Christmas carol or two and read some scripture. I hope to see you tonight. Thank you to everyone who chipped in to get our decorating accomplished. You've done a wonderful job! It's beautiful inside and out.

In Christ,
Bro. Ronnie Jr.

Thank you

Thank you so much for the gift card. Thanks so much for all the prayers, visits, and calls during and after Heather's illness. I love my church family dearly!

Linda Dowdy and family

We are very thankful for such a loving congregation. Thank you for opening up the church to feed family & friends following the loss of my mother. Also, a special thank you to all those who cooked, cleaned, set up, and helped serve our family. You are loved and appreciated. You always display the love of Christ to all!
