

WELCOME

From Our Pastor...

It is great to see you on the last Sunday and last day of the year. It was a really good year for Trace Creek. We had many increases in measurable ways and we had many increases in immeasurable ways. Looking back, I thank God for his amazing provision. Thank you for your tireless efforts and investments to get the ministry accomplished each and every week. Ministry is never complete, never can we say "enough". Our mission is bigger, more important, and more challenging than ever before.

I pray for God to send more laborers and for more to see the need to invest their lives in what God is doing. With all that God has done there is so much still to do. Will you commit 2018 to Him?

This entire week is going to be set aside as a Week of Prayer. Please join me here every day you possibly can and spend some quality time praying for Trace Creek and the needs you are aware of. The sanctuary will be open Mon-Sat from 7am-9 pm for you to come. I encourage our teenagers to come and for parents to bring your children. The next generation needs to see it and experience it. I'm anticipating a great week.

In Christ,
Bro. Ronnie, Jr.

OUR FAITH FAMILY

In the hospital: Bronson Moore

To our Trace Creek family,
What an amazing church family we have. Thank you all for your words of encouragement, texts, calls, cards, hugs, prayers, food, flowers, visits, and even wrapping my Christmas gifts! Your acts of love towards my family are so very appreciated, and we are so thankful and blessed. My mom, Betty Holland, was a special lady, and she will be missed. Continue to lift our family up in prayers.

Steve and Vickie Shelton, Jon Ross, Brandi Shelton and family, and Darren, Rachel Higgins and family
