Come As You Are ~ How Great Is Our God

The Lord’s Supper
Gentle Shepherd
This is a time set aside for Christians to remember the death and resurrection of Jesus. The bread reminds us that Jesus redeemed us with His own body. The cup reminds us that we are cleansed by His blood.

Other Requests:

- Pat Samons & Cynthia Tackett request prayers for their brother Earl. He has blockage in both legs and the doctors say there is nothing they can do for him. He has already had 5 heart attacks and 7 bypasses. Also, please pray for Earl’s finance, who found out she has a mass on her pancreas and a nodule on her lung, and is awaiting results of a CT scan.
- Darlene Leszczynski requests urgent prayers for Kym Henegar Livernois, who has been battling cancer for years and has two young children. She is a teacher here in Trenton and very active in the community. She has been in Oakwood, in ICU, all week and is having major issues relating to her treatment.
- Jodi Williams has been hospitalized again with pneumonia. She was just in the hospital less than a month ago with Legionnaire’s Disease. Please keep her in prayer that this can be brought under control quickly.
- Irmalee Stanley’s cousin Tommy Thompson is searching for a kidney donor. Please pray with him as he waits, trusting God to find a donor.
- Loraine Germain, Mary Aguilar and Ray Germain’s mom, peacefully went to be with the Lord on Wednesday night, surrounded by her children and some of her grandchildren. She was 91. There will be a viewing at Solosy funeral home today, from 1-8pm. Tomorrow there will be a viewing from 9:30-10:00am at Christ the Good Shepherd in Lincoln Park with the funeral following at 10am. She will be laid to rest at Michigan Memorial Funeral Home following that. When all is finished there will be a luncheon here at TCOC.
- Please keep Carol Bray in prayer as she recovers from the knee replacement she had last week.

Join us for lunch on Sunday, November 8th as we welcome Randy and Linda Armstrong. If you’re able to help with the luncheon, there’s a sign up sheet outside Mary’s office. Also, let’s “shower” the Armstrongs with gift cards (Lowes, Target, Home Goods, etc.). They also enjoy eating out so a restaurant gift card would be a great idea as well. You can give them to Jessica Lewandowski or drop it in the lock box by the front classroom.
