

DAY ONE: Read Mark 14:27-31

1. Just prior to Jesus' arrest, from the lesson last week, what things in this passage does Jesus predict will happen during the evening?
2. With what words and emotions does Peter respond to Jesus' prediction?
3. Read Luke 22:31-34. What do you learn about Satan from this passage? How does he relate to God? How does he treat people?
4. What do we learn about Jesus' action and hope or goal?
5. How can awareness of the contrasting purposes of Satan and Jesus for you as a believer make a difference?

DAY TWO: Read Luke 22:54-62; John 18:15-27

6. How do these passages describe Peter's physical location?
7. What do you think was driving Peter's response to the questions aimed at him. What has happened to our 'ear slashing' Peter?
8. Reread Luke 22:60-62. Try to describe everything that Peter was experiencing.
9. List and explain the various subtle and not so subtle ways in which we can deny Jesus on a daily basis.

Since Peter's presence is not mentioned during Jesus' time on the cross, we will now trace his story which picks up on Sunday morning.

Lesson 10

DAY THREE: Read Mark 16:1-7

10. Imagine what Saturday was like after Jesus' death on the cross for his followers .
11. What details do you learn about the day, the women and their purpose? (v.1-3)
12. Give the content of the message the angel gives to the women?
13. In verse 7, what could be the reasons Peter is noted in particular?

DAY FOUR: Read Matthew 28:1-5

14. What additional things do you learn of the angel's appearance?
15. Describe the angel's effect of those who were present?
16. Describe the reaction of the apostles when they were given the angel's message. See Luke 24:10-12.
17. What does it tell you about the disciples at this time?

DAY FIVE: Read John 20:1-9

18. This account may have taken place just before Mark's account of the visit by several women. What was Mary's assumption when she first saw the empty tomb?
19. What details are we given about Peter's journey to the tomb?
20. What was it that was it that Peter 'saw and believed'?
