

Code of Conduct
Kenya Mission Trips

I am about to embark on a mission trip with the Trinity Ablaze In Kenya Mission Team, a mission during which I represent a) my country, b) the church members who donated money, c) the Church at large, and d) Jesus Christ himself. My sole purpose in joining this mission team is to accomplish the Great Commission and Great Commandment of Jesus Christ:

“go into all the world, teaching them to observe all I have commanded you...”
“love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength and love your neighbor as yourself”

I recognize that I must use discipline, discernment, and self-control during this mission, and refrain from any behavior that might reflect negatively on those I represent. Specifically, I will conduct myself with honor in the following ways:

Morning and evening devotions - I recognize that the spiritual component of this mission is the central core value of this team, and I will fully participate in all devotional activities.

Team safety - I will stay with the group at all times. I will not allow myself to be put into a situation or setting which would compromise the integrity and safety of this mission.

Use of alcohol - I will use self-control during travel and free time, and I will not allow the reputation of the mission to be compromised by my conduct.

Day off - I will use my day off to rest and relax in order to complete the mission, and I will conduct myself in a way that brings honor to Jesus Christ and the mission team.

General - I will adapt to local customs so as not to offend our hosts, and I will constantly monitor my own behavior, asking the question “Does my conduct bring honor to the cause of Jesus Christ?”

My spiritual life - I intend to return home with a renewed sense of commitment in my spiritual walk.

I understand that I will be accountable to the ELCK Leadership, the Mission Team Leader, and my peers on the Team.

This is what I commit to, with God’s help. “I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me.” Philippians 4:13
