

First Things First - Walther's Thesis VII and Thesis VIII

The proper order of presentation of these elements of the Christian faith according to Thesis VII (p. 61) should be in this order?

1. Grace should be preached (taught) before good works. T or F
2. The good news should be preached before the law is applied? T or F
3. Like John the Baptizer, repentance should be preached before faith in the Triune God? T or F
4. Sanctification before Justification? T or F
5. Sanctification is the work of the Holy Spirit. T or F
6. Justification is the work of God completed at Jesus' death. (see top of p. 46) T or F
7. After the funeral of Kelsey Clain the family should be confronted about their contribution to the failure of the family unit that was Kelsey's children without a father. T or F
8. Antinomianism claims that true repentance is not the result of the heavy-handed law but flows from the sweetness of the Gospel. T or F
9. Describe the parenting style likely coming from the antinomian doctrines. How might that conflict with the teaching of our seventh grade religion teacher who says to his class, "To God our life is like a pile of filthy rags placed before a king?"
10. How is the proper distinction between the Law and the Gospel exhibited in Mark 1:15? Acts 20:21?
11. Why is it necessary to distinguish justification from sanctification without separating the two? See John 15:1-8 and Galatians 2: 19-21.
12. Sanctification is a gift and not a work of the law. T or F See 1 Corinthians 1:26-31
13. Learning Bible memory work is a gift of God and not a work we have to labor over.
14. Getting up and going to church on Sunday morning is a good work. T or F
15. Giving a dollar each week in the church offering is a good work. T or F
16. What happens when the Law is viewed as the source of the Christian Life? See 2 Corinthians 3:4-6.
