LIFE NOTES

Neighbors' lives occupy among the highest places of all God graciously lends us (Matthew 25:14-15). We may invest ourselves in them rather than burying them (Matthew 25:22-25) before they have borne the fruit and beauty for which He purposes them (1 Thessalonians 5:9-10). With this attitude, we share in His own joy! Merciful Christ, excite our spirits so to trust Your goodness that we find Your kingdom coming even amid suffering and weakness. Amen.

SAVE THE DATES

Mark your calendars for Dec. 17, the Service of Lessons and Carols. Children and adults will read lessons from Holy Scripture and the congregation and choir will sing marvelous Advent/Christmas Carols, for the 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services. Just a reminder, Advent begins on Sunday, Dec. 3. During Advent, Trinity will have midweek worship services on Wednesdays at 12:15 p.m. and 7 p.m. Also, during the Wednesdays in Advent, Trinity will have a dinner in the Fellowship Hall, beginning at 5:30 p.m.

WHY THIS JUBILEE

Women ages 8 and older are invited to join us Dec. 3 for a Prepare for Jesus event to focus on the Reason for the Season this Christmas. Opportunities are available to be a hostess for a table of eight. Make your reservations by Nov. 19 by contacting Paula Pratt at 332-1244 or Joann Wulf at 359-1165

BINGO NIGHT AT TRINITY

Trinity Lutheran will be hosting a Bingo Night on Saturday, Dec. 2 in the gym. Doors will open at 6 p.m., and Bingo begins at 6:30 p.m. There also will be silent-auction and raffle items. To sign up or reserve a table, you can go to <https://goo.gl/forms/0f3AvTebx7GD4imz2>. Because of space, Bingo Night will be limited to the first 240 people that sign up. If you have any questions, please email Trinity's Parent Teacher League at ptl@trinitydavenport.org. There's no cost to take part, but free-will donations will be accepted.

NO BIBLE STUDY, SUNDAY SCHOOL

There will be no Bible study, Sunday School classes or doughnuts on Nov. 26.

Sunday School This Week: God Gives Moses the Ten Commandments:

While Moses is up on a mountain, listening to God, God gives him the Ten Commandments. These important instructions are more than just God handing down rules; they are the law for his people to live by. God loves us, and God doesn't want us to get hurt.

Dec. 3 lesson: Exodus 32:1-29, 40: 12-15. God Sees Aaron Makes a Golden Calf.

BLACK FRIDAY BABYSITTING

Trinity Lutheran students are hosting a Black Friday babysitting fundraiser on Nov. 24 for an educational and service trip to Florida. Babysitting will be from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Nov. 24 here at the church and school. The cost is $5/hour per child, with one free hour for each additional sibling. To sign-up for babysitting and more for more details about the event, go to signupgenius.com/go/30e0d4baaaa2da13-black1

TEACHER AIDE NEEDED

Trinity is in need of a teacher aide for kindergarten. This is a part-time position, with morning hours. If you are interested, please stop by the school office to pick up an employment application.

NEW EVENING BIBLE STUDY

Beginning in January, join us as we discuss the book Grace Upon Grace by John Kleinig. The study will be led by Elizabeth Gehle and will begin on Tuesday, Jan. 9 at 6:30 p.m. and will run until Feb. 6. Please be prepared to discuss Chapter 1 on Jan. 9. There may be a few books available for purchase in the church office; otherwise, the best paperback price is at cbd.com. Amazon and Apple iBooks have the best ebook price.

INVITATION

The Davenport Chordbusters Chorus & Quartets present "Celebrate the Holidays" on Friday, December 1st at 7pm at Heritage Church, 4801 - 44th Street, Rock Island, Illinois. Admission is free. Doors open at 6:30pm. There will be an offering to benefit Churches United's food pantries. Trinity member Gary Schocker is a participant in the choirs.

CHANCEL FLOWERS

The chancel flowers are given to God's glory by Janet Levetzow in memory of loved ones.
