Oleg Volkov was born in Kyrgyzstan (USSR) and converted to Christ in 1993. He entered pastoral ministry in 2000 at the Presbyterian Church "Annunciation", in Pushkin. In 2004, he graduated from Biblical Theological Seminary (SRS) St. Petersburg, Russia and became pastor of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, St. Petersburg, Russia in 2010. Oleg currently serves as a missionary sent by Grace Covenant Church in Nacogdoches, TX. He has been married to Natasha for 19 years. They have two daughters and two grandchildren.

Randy Booth is a graduate of Texas A&M and has completed studies in theology and apologetics. An ordained minister for 30 years, he currently pastors Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church in Nacogdoches, TX (CREC), where he has ministered for 15 years. He has been a leader in both homeschool and Christian day schools and also serves on the board of Directors of New St. Andrews College. He has been married to Marinell for 40 years. They have three grown children and thirteen grandchildren.

Attila Hajdu pastors the Evangelical Reformed Church of Budapest, Hungary. He is a high school teacher at a Christian school. Working to reintroduce Biblical and Reformed Christianity in Hungary, Attila has translated books on family life and theology into Hungarian. He earned two M.A. degrees, one from the History Department learning about the Reformed Church in Hungary and another in American Studies studying Applied Sociolinguistics, both degrees from the University of Szeged. Attila and his wife Kati have 5 children.

Bogumil Jarmulak pastors Evangelical Reformed Church in Poznan, Poland. Since 2011, he has worked as field coordinator for Joint Eastern European Project in Belarus, Hungary, and Ukraine. He is currently the Presiding Minister Pro Tempore of Anselm Presbytery. He received a B.A. degree from Biblical Theological Seminary in Wroclaw, Poland and both a M.A. and Ph.D. from Christian Theological Academy in Warsaw. Bogumil and his wife Ewa have three children.

Jack Phelps has served as pastor of Covenant Bible Church in Alaska since April 1984. He served the CREC as Presiding Minister of Council for 6 years (2008-2014) and is currently both Assistant Presiding Minister of Council and Presiding Minister of Anselm Presbytery. A co-founder of the Joint Eastern European Project (JEEP), Jack serves as Co-Chairman of the JEEP Executive Committee. He is an Air Force veteran of the Vietnam Conflict and was a recipient of the Republic of Vietnam Cross of Gallantry. He and his wife Debra have 5 children and 22 grandchildren.
