Chris/Andrea McCabe Room 106

It Starts At Home by Chandler Young Couples

Our children can grow up smart, athletic, popular and polite but lack a vibrant relationship with Christ. The time they spend in church each week can be helpful, but it cannot nurture a faith in our kids that will withstand the trials that are on the horizon. Church alone cannot teach them, we must start at home. But many parents feel ill equipped to develop the faith of their children. This study will help you give your kids what they need to build a solid framework for lifelong faith.

Tammy Putnam Room 107

I & II Samuel Adults

Be introduced to the monarchy of Israel, and the establishment of David's dynasty. David is victorious in battle, praised by people, and righteous in God's sight, yet he fails. All The Places To Go by John Ortberg Adults

Very rarely in the Bible does God command someone to "Stay." He opens a door, and then he invites us to walk through it—into the unknown. And how we choose to respond will ultimately determine the life we will lead and the person we will become. In fact, to fail to embrace the open door is to miss the work God has made for us to do. This study helps us to open your eyes to the countless doors God places before us every day.

Al Vasaris Room 109

"Colossians" by Matt Chandler Adults

Colossians reveals Christ: His supremacy and incomparability, His atoning death, the treasures of wisdom and knowledge found in Him, and the life we have in Him. As Colossians 3:11 states, "Christ is all and in all." Colossians is a book primarily concerned with Christ. It contains some of the clearest revelation of Christology in the entire New Testament. Come join in this study as we focus our full attention on our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

Grace by Max Lucado Men

There's more to grace than we've ever imagined. This study challenges you to not only receive grace but also to be changed by grace. Shaped by grace. Strengthened by grace. Emboldened by grace. Softened by grace. Snatched by the nape of your neck and shaken to your senses by grace.
