

Speaking of Books

Unitarian Fellowship

Conference Room

First Mondays at 7PM

Speaking of Books

A Non-fiction Book Group
Sponsored by the Membership Committee.

Speaking of Books is the Fellowship's non-fiction book discussion group.

We have been meeting for just over three years now.

The group picks the books
we read and we try to pick books two months ahead.

You don't have to be a member or friend to participate, just a book-lover.

A group of book lovers exploring the world of non-fiction books. We choose our own books and follow where our interests and curiosity lead us. We value open and insightful as well as fun and friendly conversation.

Some of the Books we have read:

Man's Search for Meaning-Viktor Frankel, The Swerve-Stephan Greenblatt, Outliers-Malcolm Gladwell, Socrates, Buddha, Confucius,
Jesus-Karl Jasper, Lincoln
at Gettysburg-Garry Wills, The Smartest Kids in the World-Amanda Ripley,

Strength in What Remains-Tracy Kidder, Zealot-Reza Aslan, My Family and Other Animals-Gerald Durrell, The First Muslim:
The Story of Muhammad-Lesley Hazleton, Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End-Atul

Gawande, The Unwinding-
George Parker, Just Mercy-
Bryan Stevenson,
Mountains Beyond
Mountains-Tracy Kidder, Saving Capitalism-Robert
Reich, What a Plant Knows-
Daniel Chamovitz

Contacts

For more information

...

Meg Heshner
(mheshner@yahoo.com)

or

Jane Bartik
(aubreysprite@yahoo.com)

or call the office at 845-471-6580

RSVPs are appreciated but not strictly required

Every January we take a break from non-fiction to share poems and other writings.