Russell's Ritings....

Harry Houdini was one of the greatest magicians and escape artists of all time. At his funeral the pallbearers included Broadway producers Charles Dillingham and Florenz Ziegfield. As they carried the coffin out of the church, Dillingham leaned across to Ziegfield and whispered, "Ziggie, I bet you a hundred bucks he ain't in there."

The Easter word is that "He ain't in there." That's wonderful news. That news was vibrantly alive at UMCE this past Sunday. It was a great day! The attendance, the music, the fellowship, the spirit, the new members, the offering – it was a wonderful day!

Every Sunday is a little Easter. I hope to see you again this Sunday. The sermon is "Three Victories to Change Your Life." (Philippians 1: 12 – 14)

"and the folks are friendly"
