

May 4, 2018

Russell's Ritings....

This Sunday we continue the series, "What We Need".
The sermon is "What We Need: HOPE" (Psalm 118:24).
Looking ahead these words from "The Writings" are meaningful:

One step at a time He quietly leads us,
One step at a time He gently guides.
One step at a time Lest it becomes too heavy,
One step at a time He gently guides.
One step at a time The load becomes lighter,
One step at a time The light is brighter.
One step at a time we're almost there,
One step at a time We see the light.
One step at a time We see the light.

Ken Callahan, church sociologist and planner, said - and it's SO true, HOPE IS STRONGER THAN MEMORY!

Shalom,

Russell