Ministry Jottings: God Loves Your Quirks

“I praise you, God, because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.”

– Psalm 139:14

Can you balance a spoon on the end of your nose? Or hum the entire William Tell Overture from start to finish? Or maybe you know the entire play-by-play of baseball's famous “Who's on first” act. Everyone has their own special talents, their own unique ways, their own . . . quirks. They are all part of God's gifts to you – yes, even the quirkiest quirks – and they're just one more thing that God loves about you.

God loves you simply because you are . . . well . . . you. God loves your imperfections, your quiriness, your creativity. God loves the way you laugh, the way you work, the way you give.

Because you are fearfully and wonderfully made . . .
because you are you . . . because you are our Lord's.

In Christ's grace,
