Dr. John Ewart will Preach on Sunday, August 9

We welcome Dr. John Ewart to the University Hills pulpit for our Sunday service on August 9. Dr. Ewart is Professor of Missions at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has been on Southeastern’s faculty since 2006.

Previously, Dr. Ewart served on the faculties of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, KY and The Southern Baptist School of Theology in the Philippines. He has also served as the Senior Pastor of churches in Kentucky, Arizona, and Oklahoma.

In 1985 and 1986 Dr. Ewart served as a Journeyman with the Foreign Mission Board (now the International Mission Board) of the Southern Baptist Convention. He has travelled to over thirty nations around the world to conduct mission projects.

Ewart holds degrees from Baylor University, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Sherra and I will be in Elizabethtown, Kentucky, on August 9 with our son, Coye IV, for his ordination to the ministry. Elizabethtown Baptist Church extended the call to Coye earlier this year to serve as their Assistant Pastor. His responsibilities are especially in student ministry. The service of ordination will be on Sunday evening.

On August 16, Coye IV will be in the Charlotte area and will preach his first sermon after receiving ordination at University Hills that Sunday. Please help me get this word around to people who you know would like to be aware of it.
