

Grace Baptist At The Omaha Urban Plunge

OPEN DOOR MISSION -- The Emmetsburg group from Grace Baptist Church is pictured in front of the Open Door Mission in Omaha. Pictured are (front row, left to right) Becca Schmeling, Andrew Phillips, Katelyn Howard, Aleysha Schutz, Justin DeFord, Andrew Bruellman, Robin Kerber, Jordan Kerber, Megan Fuerstenau and Jane Palmer; (back row) Brian Palmer, Tanner Bruellman, Anthony Bruellman, Andy Fehr, Matt Wellik, Jaimee Kerber, Austin McCartan and Andrew Wellik (hidden). Students and adults spent a weekend in Omaha's inner city visiting nine different faith-based organizations that are working with the poor.

--submitted photos

ANGELS ON WHEELS is a ministry that reaches out to the homeless. Megan Fuerstenau, Austin McCartan and Andrew Wellik (top photo, left to right) visit with a homeless person in Omaha, NE; Aleysha Schutz (below, right) stops to visit with a homeless man.

ANDREW Phillips is pictured painting a building at the Mission for All Nations.

MISSIONS FOR ALL NATIONS is a food pantry located in South Omaha. The Emmetsburg team had the opportunity to help clean and organize, to pack food, do yard work and help the clients with their food. Pictured (left to right) Megan Fuerstenau, Jordan Kerber and Katelyn Howard pack food at the Mission for All Nations.

OPEN DOOR MISSION is a homeless shelter for men, women and families. The mission serves 1,500 hot meals every day. Some of the team members helped clean and set up for lunch, while others worked in the kitchen. Justin DeFord, Andrew Bruellman and Matt Wellik (pictured left to right) transported meals to the serving site.